The Layout of This Study

I want to thank you for choosing this study. I believe that this is a crucial study for every Christian to understand. God has been using the truths of this study to radically change my life. Therefore, my desire is for you to not only learn these truths but to also apply them personally to your life. I would first like to share with you how this study is laid out.

There are six lessons, and each lesson has five daily readings. This will allow you to break down the material into five separate parts each week. Throughout each lesson will be exercises, questions, and scriptures for you to meditate upon in an “Engaging God” section.

Engaging God

The “Engaging God” section is designed for you to seek out the Holy Spirit for personal revelation and understanding of what you have just read. This is especially crucial when you come to truths that contradict what you believe. If we don’t seek God to reveal the truth, then we will never move beyond the false beliefs that we may be believing.

The Word “Meditation”

Some people struggle with the word “meditation” because of the New Age connotations. However, it is a biblical word that we do not need to shy away from. The key is what and Who that we are meditating on. The focus of our meditation will be on God and His truth. If you really have a struggle with the word “meditate,” then use the word “think” instead.

The Word “Revelation”

I will be using the word “revelation” several times throughout the study. This is a key word that simply means that God supernaturally takes His truth and makes it personal to you and to your life situations. Revelation is God’s way of giving you understanding of what you are reading. Revelation takes you beyond cognitive understanding in that it gives you spiritual understanding of God’s truth.

What Do You Believe?

Remember this key truth as you go through this study:

You will not live beyond what you believe.

This is key because if you have false or lying beliefs about living the Christian life, then you will be making choices from those false beliefs. What you believe affects what you think, how you feel, and the choices that you make. Therefore, one of God’s objectives is to expose your lying beliefs about God, yourself, and the Christian life. He then wants to move you from believing the lies to believing the truth. Therefore, I would encourage you throughout the study to ask God to expose any lying beliefs that you may have and to ask Him to renew your mind to His truth. (Romans 12:2)
Lesson One

What Is Sanctification?
The Renewing of Your Mind

DAY ONE

“Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed”
Romans 12:2b

Introduction

In this study we are going to go deeper in our understanding of spiritual transformation. We will focus on the following truths:

• The meaning of sanctification – God’s transformation process.
• God’s process of renewing your mind to His truth.
• The truth about the battle of the mind and how to fight the battle.
• Satanic/demonic influence on the soul and spiritual warfare
• Healing of our damaged emotions and woundedness.
• The transformation of our will and brokenness.
• Expectations concerning sanctification.

Questions To Consider:

To make this study more personal, you might consider writing down your answers to the questions below and use them to apply to the truths that you will learn in this study.

What fleshly attitudes and behaviors would you like to see changed in your life?
What changes would you like to see in your thinking, feelings, or choices?
What is a defeating sin pattern that you want to have victory over?
What is your past/present woundedness that you would like to be healed from?

God’s Process of Transformation

“He restores my soul...” Psalm 23:3
Even David in the Old Testament talks about the need for the restoration or transformation of the soul. God calls this process of transformation sanctification. Paul talks about sanctification in the verses below.

“But now that you have been freed from sin … the benefit you reap is sanctification …”

_Romans 6:22_

“He is the source of your life in Christ Jesus, Who became for us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification and redemption” _1 Corinthians 1:30_

What is the definition of sanctification?

SANCTIFICATION

means “to purify internally by the renewing of the SOUL.”

Therefore, the sanctification or transformation is God’s supernatural process to transform your SOUL.

Meditate: on the verses above concerning sanctification.

Engaging God: Ask God to give you a deeper revelation of what it means to purify and renew your soul.

I want to start our study by revisiting the condition of our soul versus our human spirit.

The Condition Of The Soul Versus The Human Spirit

We know from our previous study that we have a new human spirit that is perfect and complete and in union with God. Our human spirit was totally transformed at salvation. What about our soul? The truth is that God did nothing at salvation to transform our soul. Therefore, the part of us that needs to be transformed is our soul. Why?

The soul needs to be transformed because:

- The MIND is filled with lying beliefs.
- There are negative and damaged EMOTIONS tied to our lying beliefs.
- Our WILL is for the most part unwilling to live from God’s will and it desires to live independently of God.
- There is WOUNDEDNESS in our soul as a result of past abuse, rejection, trauma, etc.
- We have STRONGHOLDS (defeating sin patterns) that we need to be set free from.

Let’s look at the difference between the condition of the soul versus the human spirit at the point of salvation in the following diagram.
Condition Of Your Human Spirit Versus Your Soul

SOUL

STRONGHOLDS

MIND

Lying beliefs

EMOTIONS

Negative emotions tied to your lying beliefs.

WILL

Woundedness

Question: What is it that you most want transformed in your soul?

Engaging God: Begin asking God to change you in those areas.

What God Promises Through The Sanctification Process

What is it that God wants to accomplish in your soul through sanctification?

MIND – God wants to renew your mind to His truth in order to set you free from your lying beliefs. Romans 12:2; John 8:32

EMOTIONS – God wants to heal the negative/damaged emotions associated with your lying beliefs. Psalm 147:3

WILL – God wants to move your will from being unwilling to being willing to depend upon Him, to obey, to submit, and to surrender. Mark 14:36; Philippians 2:13

WOUNDEDNESS – God wants to heal you of your past or present woundedness. Psalm 147:3

STRONGHOLDS – God wants to free you from your ongoing defeating sin patterns. Galatians 5:1

Question: In what ways would it change how you feel about life, yourself, God, or others if these promises became an experiential reality in your soul?
Engaging God: Begin taking steps of faith by asking the Lord to transform your soul according to His promises.

The following diagram illustrates the results of sanctification.

!Diagram of Soul Transformation

Questions: What specific truths do you want God to renew your mind to? Are there any damaged emotions from your past that need to be healed? If so, what are they? What are some of the areas of your life where you are unwilling to submit or surrender to God? What are some of your defeating sin patterns that you would like to experience victory over?

DAY TWO

“The Line” and Sanctification

Let’s use “The Line” analogy to help illustrate God’s process of sanctification. We know as we take steps of faith that God unleashes His LIFE and POWER into our soul to transform it. Look at the following “Line” illustration which depicts this process:
Let’s start by looking deeper into the truths associated with the renewing of our minds.

The Renewing Of Your Mind

“Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is - his good, pleasing and perfect will.” Romans 12:2

As we learned from the identity study, the key to transformation starts in your mind. We saw that God wants to renew our minds to the truth so that we will no longer believe or live from our false beliefs. We will explore that more in depth, but I would first like to share some thoughts about our minds.

Your Mind

Have you ever counted the number of thoughts that pass through your mind in 60 seconds. Needless to say we are receiving countless number of thoughts in any given day. These thoughts influence ourselves, our relationships, and our circumstances in the following ways:

a. How we think.
b. How we feel.
c. What we say.
d. The choices we make.
e. Our attitudes and behavior.

These thoughts come in several categories. Here are some of the categories:

a. Positive and negative thoughts.
b. Truthful thoughts.
c. Evil thoughts.
d. Fantasy thoughts.
e. Lying thoughts.
f. Deceiving thoughts

g. Fleshly thoughts.

Let’s explore some questions and answers to key issues about our thought life.

1. Are we supposed to take OWNERSHIP of all our thoughts?

By “ownership,” I mean that we don’t filter our thoughts. Rather, we simply accept every thought that comes into our minds. When I asked this question, most people just assume that they are to take ownership of their thoughts.

In light of this issue think about this example for a moment. I assume you have a front door to your home. You may have a deadbolt and a peep hole so that you can see who is at the front door. If you live in a high crime area, your tendency will be to make sure that the deadbolt is secure and that you will always look through the peep hole to see who is at the door. Imagine taking the door off the hinges and putting it in your garage. You have no security and any and every person good or bad can enter your home. For many of us, we have removed the front door of our minds and we are letting in every thought that comes our way. Let’s explore the answer to this issue.

What is the truth?

“Sanctify them in the truth; Your word is truth.” John 17:17

One of the key reasons we are to learn God’s truth is that the Holy Spirit can use that truth to create a “spiritual” filter for our thoughts. As an unbeliever, you had no other filter than your own. The result was that you had no other choice but to take ownership of all your thoughts. However, part of the process of renewing your mind is that using God’s truth the Holy Spirit can develop a “spiritual” filter so that you will not take ownership of all your thoughts.

Let me give you an example: Let’s assume that you believed the lie that God is a punishing God. Let’s also assume that you lost your job. If you don’t know the truth, then when thoughts come into your mind like “God must be punishing me for something I did wrong.” Or “I deserve to be punished by God” you will take ownership of those thoughts. Therefore, if you don’t know and believe the truth there is no spiritual filter for you to say “no” to those thoughts. Before we go any further, I want to remind you of a key truth:
Remember it is not just the truth that you KNOW.
It is the truth that you BELIEVE.

It is important to understand that every time you take ownership of lying thoughts then you reinforce your lying beliefs. Therefore, we are to learn God’s truth, seek the Holy Spirit to give us revelation of the truth and take us from knowing to believing the truth. As we do, then a “spiritual” filter will be developed so that you will filter all your thoughts through the grid of the truth.

The truth is that we DON’T have to take ownership of all our thoughts.

DAY THREE

2. How much time do you spend TRYING to resolve problems and situations that you CAN’T seem to resolve?

Are you facing a situation that you cannot figure out a solution for? Why a relationship is the way it is or why certain circumstances are the way they are? You have thought long and hard but you seem to have no solution. Is it possible that God will not let you figure out a solution because He wants you to come to Him for the solution?

What is the truth?

“…apart from Me you can do nothing.” John 15:5b

“…..we have the mind of Christ.” 1 Corinthians 2:16

Remember that you were created for a moment by moment dependence on God. The very definition of dependence means that you need God every moment. God is very creative in the number of ways He creates a need for Him. One of those ways is to give us situations that we cannot resolve apart from Him. Through these situations He is teaching us that we need Him.

Remember that every moment, you have access to the “eternal” internet. The “eternal” internet being the mind of Christ. The truth is that you have the mind of Christ. Having the mind of Christ means that you have available to you God’s wisdom every moment. As a result, you no longer have to depend upon your finite wisdom. Rather you can access divine wisdom at any time.

By the way, the Lord has had an eternity to think about your situation. Is it possible that He has a solution to your situation? Isn’t it interesting that we believe we have to exhaust all our human capability before we seek God’s? Therefore, rather than seeking your finite mind for a solution, seek the eternal wisdom of an infinite God.
3. In certain situations do you tend to go back and think the same thoughts over and over again?

In addition to seeking my own finite wisdom instead of God’s, I sometimes wonder if I am a little obsessive-compulsive about my thought life. There are some issues that come up that I seem to go back to and repeat the same thoughts over and over again. Am I alone or have you done that in the past? When I find myself going back to these thoughts I feel like I am in a “mental” squirrel cage. When I do this it reminds me of the definition of insanity: repeating the same thing over and over again expecting a different result. When we get in our “mental” squirrel cages, the truth is that we tend to never get out. The result is frustration, giving up, or trying harder.

What is the truth?

The key when these situations arise is to entrust the situation to the Lord. Since we have the mind of Christ, we no longer have to “obsess” about our situation. God wants us to entrust that situation to Him and seek His thoughts, His discernment, or His understanding. As we do, then He will infuse our mind with His thoughts.

To illustrate this point, let’s look at the following line diagram. Above the line in the Spirit we contain all of God’s wisdom, discernment, understanding, etc. Living from below the line in our finite minds we only have a finite understanding, wisdom, and intellect.

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Finite human mind

Your finite understanding, wisdom and intellect

Question: Where would you rather live? Above or below the line?

Using “The Line” illustration again, let’s assume that you are in a situation where you need God’s wisdom. Below “The Line” you come to the place in your mind where you need His wisdom. You then go above “The Line” and let the Holy Spirit remind you of the truth. You then ask Christ to BE your wisdom in this situation.
Christ is my wisdom and I need to draw on His eternal wisdom as to what to do. Lord, I am trusting you to be my wisdom and tell me what to do.

Question: What are some areas in your life today where you need God’s wisdom, discernment, discernment, or understanding?

Engaging God: In those areas, seek Christ to BE your wisdom, discernment, or understanding.

4. Do you struggle with what I call “SPIRITUAL AGD”?

I find among many Christians who are learning how to walk by faith that they struggle with “spiritual” attention to God disorder or AGD. By this I mean that we can be easily distracted from our focus on Christ and our walk with Him. Our lives are full of distractions. As one person said, we are living in a 40 gig (of memory) world with a 1 gig brain. I believe that like no other time in our lives we are being inundated with an overload of information. Take smart phones for example. Look at how much information we can access through them. There are scientific studies out now that reveal how “addicted” we are becoming to our smart phones. We have so much information coming to us from so many directions that it is hard to keep our attention fixed on Christ and our spiritual walk.

What is the truth?

“fixing our eyes on Jesus the author and perceptor of faith” Hebrews 12:2

I believe that one of the greatest strategies of the enemy (Satan/demonic) is to use our information overload to distract us from our walk with God. All it takes for the enemy is to use one thought, smart phone, etc. to distract you from your focus on Christ. Therefore, we must be more intentional in thought life in order to keep us from being so distracted.

I want to address each one of these issues but before I do I want to discuss how lying beliefs are formed.
How Lying Beliefs Are Formed

A key truth to understand in the formation of your lying beliefs is that they began with one thought. They were followed by additional thoughts that you took ownership of and over time were reinforced to a point that they became a lying belief. Much like building a brick wall, each brick laid represents a thought that is being laid on top of another thought. If these lying beliefs are reinforced long enough, they become strongholds. I simply define a stronghold as:

A reinforced lying belief that becomes entrenched in our minds.

Therefore, it is crucial that you engage God to renew your mind to the truth so that:

1. You won’t stay LOCKED into your lying beliefs.
2. You won’t continue to REINFORCE your lying beliefs until they become strongholds.
3. God will BREAK DOWN the strongholds that already grip your mind.

The Process of Forming Lying Beliefs

The process of forming a lying belief goes from thought to action to belief. Below is an example of what that process looks like.

I THINK THAT I AM rejected.

Because I CONTINUE TO THINK this way,

I ACT as if I AM rejected.

Because I THINK and ACT this way,

I BELIEVE that I am rejected.

As you reinforce lying beliefs, the words in Ephesians 4:14 become a reality:

“Then we will no longer be like children, forever changing our minds about what we believe because someone has told us something different or because someone has cleverly lied to us and made the lie sound like the truth.” Ephesians 4:14 (NLT)

If you believe the lies long enough, they WILL become the truth to you.
The longer that you continue believing the lies, the more reinforced those lying beliefs become and the more they become the truth to you.

DAY FOUR

Remember That You Will Not Live Beyond What Your Believe

You will NOT live beyond what you believe. If what you believe is a lie, then you will be making CHOICES to live from your lying beliefs.

The choices that we tend to make from our lying beliefs are choices that result in fleshly behaviors as well as choices to try to make life work independently of God. The next diagram illustrates this. (I am using the brain in the diagram as an illustration of the mind even though they are different from one another.)

Choices Are Made From Your Lying Beliefs

For us to make choices based upon the truth, God must first renew our minds by replacing our lying beliefs with His truth. In this lesson we are going to focus on God’s process of renewing our minds to believe His truth.

Lying Beliefs Have Varying Strengths.

Every lying belief is different in terms of the strength of its grip on your mind. Let me use the following diagram to illustrate the point. In the diagram this person’s strongest lying belief is anger, which is 90 on a scale of 1-100. Inadequacy is the weakest lying belief at 30. The key point is that not all lying beliefs are equal. What I have found in my own life is that my strongest lying belief (i.e., stronghold) is tied to certain flesh patterns which have been reinforced by my thinking.

Lying Beliefs Have Different Degrees Of Strength

<thead>
<tr>
<th>LYING BELIEFS</th>
<th>INADEQUACY = 30</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>

<td>WORRY = 45</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SELF-SUFFICIENT = 75</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ANGER = 90</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Question: Why do you think that it is important to understand that some of your lying beliefs are stronger than others?

Engaging God: Seek God to reveal to you which of your lying beliefs have a stronger hold on you.

What Is God’s Process of Producing a “Spiritual” Filter and Renewing Your Mind?

God’s process of producing a “spiritual” filter and renewing your mind includes four parts:

- LEARN the truth.
- Engage the Holy Spirit by faith to give you REVELATION about the truth.
- BELIEVE in the truth.
- CHOOSE to walk by FAITH in the truth.

Meditate: on the key points above concerning God’s renewing process.

Engaging God: Ask the Lord to reveal to you the areas where you have may have learned the truth but do not really believe the truth. In those areas, seek Him to give you personal revelation and a desire to believe the truth.
Truths Concerning Producing A “Spiritual” Filter and Being Set Free From Your Lying Beliefs

1. Learn God’s TRUTH.

“God our Savior, who wants all men to be saved and to come to a knowledge of the truth.” 1 Timothy 2:3b, 4

We must first know the truth in order to have our minds renewed to the truth. Knowledge must become revelation before it will renew our mind. We seek God to take that revelation and to use it to root out and to set us free from our lying beliefs.

Engaging God: As you spend time in God’s word, ask Him to take the information to revelation and to renew your mind with the truth and to begin setting you free from your lying beliefs.

2. Begin THINKING the truth.

“For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing as far as the division of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart.” Hebrews 4:12

I have used the word “intentional” many times in the previous studies. It is crucial that early on in the process of having your mind renewed that you intentionally think about specific verses that apply to your lying beliefs. As you begin to think the truth:

a. God will begin to replace your lying thoughts with the truth as is illustrated below.

As you begin thinking the truth and are seeking the Spirit to renew your mind, He will begin replacing the lying thoughts with the truth as illustrated below.
b. A “spiritual” filter begins to develop

As you begin to think the truth, the Spirit will develop a “spiritual” filter. The “spiritual” filter begins to form when you begin believing the truth. In other words, the spiritual filter is composed of believed truth.

A Spiritual Filter Begins To Form

3. As you begin to take steps of faith and seek God to renew your mind:

a. You lying beliefs will begin to lose their grip and power over you.

This process takes place one thought at a time. As He replaces the lying thoughts with His truth, the lying belief decreases in strength and influence in your thinking and choices. Let’s use the same illustration that we used for the varying strengths of lying beliefs. In this diagram, anger has a strength of 90, self-sufficiency is a 75, worry is a 45, and inadequacy is a 30.

Lying Beliefs Have Different Degrees Of Strength
As you seek God to renew your mind and to set you free from your lying beliefs of anger, self-sufficiency, worry, and inadequacy, you will see that as you continue to walk by faith the strength of these lying beliefs will decrease. In the next illustration, anger has gone from a strength of 90 to a strength of 70, self-sufficiency from a 75 to a 50, and so on.

Of course, this is just an illustration of what God is doing. Unfortunately, He is not giving us a percentage scale to measure our progress. Here is a key truth to remember:

If you continue seeking God to renew your mind with His truth, you will begin to experience a DECREASE in the INFLUENCE that your lying beliefs have over you.

The key word is “influence.” The stronger the lying belief the stronger the influence it has on your thinking, choices, and behavior. As your mind is being renewed, your lying belief will have less of a grip on your mind.

b. Your “spiritual” filter will GROW and you will begin to NO LONGER take ownership of all your thoughts.

As your spiritual filter grows you will begin to reject the lying thoughts as illustrated below.
c. The Spirit will begin to TRANSFORM your lying beliefs into Christ-like ATTITUDES.

Remember the partial list of Christ-like attitudes:

- Unconditional love
- Secure
- Forgiving
- Compassionate
- Adequate
- Sacrificial
- Free
- Joyful

- Worthy
- Acceptable
- Kind
- Discerning
- Thankful
- Righteous
- Victorious
- Peaceful

- Humble
- Patient
- Fearless
- Wise
- Christ-confident
- Selfless
- Strong
- Good

In addition to the lessening of the strength and influence of your lying beliefs, Christ-like attitudes will begin replacing your lying beliefs. In this illustration below, joy is replacing anger, Christ-sufficiency is replacing self-sufficiency, etc.

Therefore, know with confidence that your lying beliefs are being transformed into Christ-like attitudes.

As God renews your mind to the truth, Christ-like ATTITUDES REPLACE your lying beliefs.
d. God will tear down your strongholds.

As your mind is being renewed and your lying beliefs are being replaced, God is tearing down your strongholds. The key thing to remember that for the most part it will take time for you to begin to experience freedom from your strongholds depending on the strength of your strongholds.

Engaging God: As you seek God to renew your mind, ask Him to give you an awareness of the Christ-like attitudes that He is producing as He replaces your lying beliefs with His truth.

4. By faith THANK and PRAISE God that He is in the process of renewing your mind.

“I will praise the name of God with song, and shall magnify Him with thanksgiving.”
Psalm 69:30

“I will bless the LORD at all times; His praise shall continually be in my mouth.” Psalm 63:1

As we abide in Him and walk in faith that God is working, we need to thank Him for what He is doing. Thank Him for the fact that He is in you and is renewing your mind to His truth. Thank Him that even though you may not be experiencing a change in your belief systems, by faith you know that change is taking place. As David said in Psalm 63, “let your praise to God be continually in your mouth.”

Step of faith: “Lord, even though I am not experiencing any change, I thank You and know by faith that you are renewing my mind and are setting me free.”

Engaging God: This is a crucial truth in that thanksgiving and praise during the transformation process is a confirmation that you are walking by faith even though you may not yet be experiencing the results of your transformation.

Key Truths To Remember As Your Mind Is Being Renewed

1. ONLY God can renew your mind to the truth. You are not capable of renewing your own mind.
2. The renewing process begins as you take STEPS of faith in God’s ability to renew and transform your mind.
3. Remember that you, for the most part, won’t FEEL or EXPERIENCE God replacing the lying beliefs with His truth.
4. However, during the renewing process you will find yourself living LESS and LESS out of your lying beliefs and the fleshly behaviors that they produce.
5. Your desire to live from your lying beliefs will DECREASE, and your desire to live from the truth (Christ-like attitudes) will INCREASE.
6. God’s transformation process will produce a BATTLE in your mind.

Meditate: on the truths listed above.
Engaging God: Seek the Spirit to remind you of these truths as you walk by faith.

The last point concerning the battle of the mind is crucial to understand because there will be resistance to God’s renewing process. We will be discussing the battle of the mind in the next lesson.

God’s Process of Renewing Your Mind and “The Line”

As an example let’s assume that your lying belief is that God is really not in control. Therefore, you believe that it is up to YOU to try to stay in control. What is the truth? The truth is that YOU have no control. It is an illusion! The truth is that God is totally in control. We see that truth in Philippians 3:20, 21:

“…the Lord Jesus Christ, who by the power that enables Him to bring everything under His control, will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like His glorious body.”

In “The Line” diagram that follows we see this process as we go from the lying belief that we are in control to the knowledge of the truth that Christ is in control. Entrust your lying beliefs to Him for Him to reveal to you the truth that He, and He alone, is in control. He will renew your mind to the point that your mind will truly believe that God, and not you, is the One in control.

Renewing Your Mind To God’s Truth

The Truth: God is in control

God Reveals

ENTRUST

Lying Belief: You are in control

What Will Be the Proof of A Renewed Mind?

As God Renews Your Mind:

• You will be thinking God’s TRUTH versus your lying beliefs.

• Your discernment concerning the lies versus the truth in your thought life will GROW.
• You will discern more QUICKLY when you are going back to your lying beliefs versus your walking in the truth.

• You will EXPERIENCE God renewing your mind, and it will create a greater desire to continue walking by faith.

• You will be making CHOICES based upon the truth versus your lying beliefs.

• Your CHRIST-CONFIDENCE will grow as you experience more of God’s transformation.

Renewing Your Mind Is A Process! It May Take Time! Why?

“There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under heaven.” Ecclesiastes 3:1

The question that we might ask ourselves concerning God’s timing in the “mind-renewing” process is, “How long has it taken for these lies to develop and the strongholds to have taken hold of my life?” We know that God can remove any lie or stronghold in a moment. However, one of the reasons that He may not do this instantly is to “grow” your faith.

The process of transformation is designed to build your faith and confidence in Him as the One who renews your mind to His truth. Therefore, as He works in and through you, let Him grow in you His patience concerning His renewal timetable. His timing is always perfect. Therefore, when you become frustrated or impatient with God’s timing, what is it that you need in those moments? It is His peace, His patience, and His endurance.

You will want God to move faster in the process, but remember that He is teaching you faith in the WAITING.

Exercise: Look at some of the lying beliefs on the following page and identify one or more of those that apply to you. Begin seeking God by faith to renew your mind and set you free from your lying beliefs.

Summary

What you will discover is that a battle in our mind will result from your walk of faith in seeking God to renew your minds. This issue is so crucial to our transformation that we will be spending the next two lessons talking about the battle of the mind and spiritual warfare.
LYING BELIEFS

Lying Beliefs About Yourself:

I feel or believe that I am:

- Unworthy
- Self-confident
- A Failure
- Self-reliant
- Weak
- Competent
- Fearful
- Secure in myself
- Rejected
- Successful
- Inadequate
- Worthy in myself
- Strong in myself
- Unacceptable
- Self-sufficient
- Anxious
- In control
- Defeated
- Fearless

Lying Beliefs About God:

I believe that God is:

- Angry
- Cold and distant
- Indifferent
- Not really in control
- Only loving conditionally
- Judgmental
- Condemning
- Punishing
- Uncaring
- Expecting performance
- Unloving
- Unable
- Unwilling
- Not compassionate
- A taskmaster

Lying Beliefs About Others:

I must compare to see if I measure up. I/They must earn acceptance.
They must meet my needs. Other’s opinions determine my value.
They must love me unconditionally. They must meet my standards.
I have “rights” concerning others.

Lying Beliefs About How To Live the Christian Life:

1. I must do something for God:
   a. to gain His love.
   b. for God to be happy with me.
   c. to earn His acceptance.
   d. to escape His condemnation.
   e. to feel good about myself.
   f. to please others.

2. It is up to me using my intellect and ability (with God’s help):
   a. to keep His commands.
   b. to make His promises real in my life.
   c. to transform myself.
   d. to be happy.
   e. to be successful.
Lesson Two

The Battle Of The Mind

DAY ONE

There Is A Battle Raging For The Control Of Your Mind.

“But there is another power within me that is at WAR with my mind. This power makes me a slave to the sin that is still within me.” Romans 7:23 (Emphasis mine)

Paul is describing an ongoing battle that rages in our minds. He tells us in Romans 7:19 what this battle produces within us:

“For the good that I want, I do not do, but I practice the very evil that I do not want.”

There is not one of us who does not feel like Paul did. Now that we are Christians, we have a desire to walk in our Christ-likeness. However, as we seek God to renew our minds, a war breaks out in our minds pitting our lying beliefs against God’s truth.

What are some truths that we need to understand about this battle?

1. The battle for the control of our mind is non-stop and will last a lifetime.
2. We have unseen enemies in this battle.
3. Our enemies seek to keep us in bondage to our lying beliefs and fleshly behaviors.
4. We cannot win this battle apart from the Holy Spirit winning it in our minds.
5. Who wins this battle will determine whether or not we will experience a transformed and an abundant life.

We will be exploring each of these truths in more depth throughout the rest of the study. The next question that we need to ask ourselves is, “To what extent are we aware of the battle?”

If we don’t know the truth about the battle for the mind, then the battle will NEVER be won!

Engaging God: Ask the Holy Spirit to give you deeper revelation of these truths, and seek Him to make you aware of these truths as you enter into the battle for your mind.

How Aware Are You Of The Battle?

“… I see another law at work in the members of my body, waging war against the law of my mind.” Romans 7:23
Paul’s words “I see” tell us that he was aware that there was a battle that was being waged in his mind. What “I see” is that too many Christians are not aware of the battle that is going on in their thought life. When we do not recognize the battle, it leaves us vulnerable in many ways:

- We will be vulnerable to the strategies of the flesh, power of sin, and Satan/demonic forces.
- We will tend to take ownership of thoughts that need to be taken captive by the Spirit.
- Taking ownership of lying thoughts will reinforce our lying beliefs.
- These reinforced lying beliefs will lead us to reinforced fleshly attitudes and behaviors.

Engaging God: Ask the Holy Spirit to give you a greater awareness of the height and length and depth of the battle that is taking place in your mind.

What Is The Battle?

> “the mind set on the flesh is death. The mind set on the Spirit is life and peace.” Romans 8:6

The battle is between every thought that lines up with GOD’S TRUTH versus every thought that CONTRADICTS God’s truth.

The battle of the mind is between thinking God’s thoughts (truth) versus thinking fleshly, lying, deceiving, tempting, and condemning thoughts produced by the enemies of your mind. Let’s look further

Fleshly, Lying, Deceiving, Tempting, and Condemning Thoughts

Fleshly Thoughts - Thoughts that lead to fleshly choices and behaviors.

The flesh is an attitude or strategy of living that says, “I can live life, solve my problems, control my life, and be happy independently of God.” From the flesh flows fleshly behavior. What drives fleshly behavior is fleshly thoughts.

Lying Thoughts - Thoughts that contradict God’s truth.

Lying thoughts primarily come from our lying beliefs about ourselves, God, and living the Christian life.

Deceiving Thoughts - Thoughts that come in first person that are designed to deceive us and to keep us from walking by faith in God’s truth

Deceiving thoughts primarily come from Satan and his demonic forces. These are thoughts inserted into our minds that come in first person. Deceiving thoughts direct our paths toward thinking which can produce fear, anxiety, worry, etc.

Tempting Thoughts - Thoughts that tempt you and draw you away from living from the truth
Tempting thoughts are thoughts usually attached to our lying beliefs and our defeating sin patterns. Since we are most susceptible in these two areas, tempting thoughts will most likely be centered there.

Condemning Thoughts - Thoughts which produce guilt, shame, or self-condemnation

These are thoughts that also come in the form of first person. They accuse us of wrongdoing and persuade us to condemn ourselves when we fail or sin.

The diagram below gives us an illustration of the battle between God’s truth and all of the thoughts that contradict God’s truth:

!THE BATTLEGROUND!

What (or Who) Are The Enemies of Your Mind in This Battle?

“….My deadly enemies that surround me.” Psalm 17:9

One of the first axioms of war is to know your enemy. In the case of the Christian there is more than one enemy. Even though David was referring to human enemies in Psalm 17:9, we as Christians are surrounded by unseen “deadly” enemies that seek to steal, kill, and destroy our walk of faith. These are the five enemies we will be discussing:

1. The flesh.
2. The power of sin.
3. Satan and his demonic forces.
4. The world.
5. Distracting thoughts of daily living.

Let’s explore each one of these in greater depth.
Enemy #1 - The FLESH

“The mind set on the flesh is death, ….” Romans 8:6

When it comes to the flesh and our thought life remember this key truth:

KEY TRUTH

The flesh CONSTANTLY produces fleshly thoughts which say “I can fix, solve, or overcome any problem, situation, etc. in MY OWN intellect and ability.”

As an attitude, the flesh continues to produce fleshly thoughts which can lead to fleshly behavior. However, equally destructive is the fact that the flesh impacts your thinking by drawing you to live from your finite intellect and ability versus depending on God. For example, let’s assume that you are struggling with a difficult decision. The flesh can introduce thoughts such as, “You can reason yourself through this decision. Given enough time you can figure out what to do.” Even though this is a normal tendency, what part does God want to play in this decision-making process? Does He not want you to depend upon His wisdom and discernment instead of your own finite thinking?

Since the flesh is for the most part our default position, then it is easy to be drawn by the flesh to use our finite ability and power to solve our problems and meet our needs.

Engaging God: Ask God to reveal to you the “death” that those fleshly thoughts are causing you.

DAY TWO

2. How The POWER OF SIN Impacts Our Thought Life

“But if I am doing the very thing I do not wish, I am no longer the one doing it, but (the power of) sin which dwells in me.” Romans 7:20 (Parenthesis mine) an INTERNAL and ONGOING power in your life that seeks to DRAW you away from God and to TEMPT you to sin.

THE POWER OF SIN:

As we have studied previously, the power of sin and the flesh work as partners seeking to draw you in to independent living. The power of sin also serves up fleshly and sinful thoughts which seek to keep us in bondage to our lying beliefs. For example, there was a time when I believed that I had the fleshly right to be critical of and to judge others, especially when they were critical of me. The source of my being critical and judgmental was my lying belief that I was inadequate.
Therefore, how I dealt with the rejection of someone else was to set myself up as judge as a way of protecting myself or justifying why or what I did. When rejection came my way, my flesh, in collusion with the power of sin, offered up such fleshly thoughts as, “I have the right to be critical because they offended me by what they said. I am justified in my being judgmental.” Every time that I would take ownership of these thoughts, they reinforced my lying belief.

Therefore, become aware in your own thought life about how the power of sin and the flesh function with each other.

The FLESH and the POWER OF SIN function in PARTNERSHIP to act upon your fleshly thoughts and produce fleshly behavior.

---

Engaging God: Ask the Holy Spirit to expose the areas in your life where the power of sin is serving up fleshly thoughts that are reinforcing your lying beliefs.

---

3. Satan and His Demonic Forces

“For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.” Ephesians 6:12

“….for he (Satan) is a liar and the father of lies.” John 8:44 (Parenthesis mine)

We must realize that we are in a fierce and ongoing battle with Satan and his demons. Since Satan can’t be everywhere at once, he depends upon his army of demons to carry out his evil strategies. These enemies are formidable foes in that they are unseen. In addition, they know the Bible only too well and clearly understand what God can and will do in our lives if we walk by faith. Therefore, Satan’s and his demon’s objectives are to prevent us from walking by faith, experiencing transformation, and developing a personal, intimate relationship with God. Satan and his demonic forces’ primary strategy in accomplishing this is by:

INSERTING lying, condemning, deceiving, tempting, and fleshly thoughts into our minds.

---

You see, Satan and the demonic know precisely which thoughts to insert because they have a complete file on our life. They know our flesh patterns, our strongholds, our woundedness, and our weaknesses. Therefore, they use all of this information plus our relationships and circumstances to insert these thoughts into our minds so that we will take ownership of them with the result that we will commit sins.

Satan knows that if he can keep us thinking and believing the lies about ourselves, God, and living the Christian life, we will never experience the transformation and abundant life that God promises. In Lesson Three we will discuss further Satan/demon’s strategy to win the battle in our minds.
Satan and his demons have primarily one FOCUS and that is to keep you in BONDAGE to your lying beliefs.

The following diagram illustrates the flesh, the power of sin, and Satan’s/demon’s impact on the soul:

Engaging God: Begin asking God to expose any thoughts that you are having that may be coming from Satan/demons.

---

4. Another Enemy of The Mind Is The WORLD.

"See to it that no one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophy, which depends on human tradition and the basic principles of this world rather than on Christ." Colossians 2:8

"For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the boastful pride of life, is not from the Father, but is from the world." 1 John 2:16

Turn on the TV, pick up a newspaper, or read a magazine. Immediately you will be bombarded with the world’s thinking. It is non-stop propaganda spread by Satan, the god of this world who is influencing you to succeed and win according to the world’s standards, to be strong, to be self-sufficient, and most importantly to be independent. Satan uses our culture to entice you to want bigger, better, and always more. It is the only message that you will ever get from the world. Why? All that the world can serve up to you, as it says in 1 John 2:16, is the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the boastful PRIDE of life.

In addition, world events, politicians, etc. can invoke fearful, angry, and anxious thoughts. I know Christians that can’t get past their anger about what the government is doing or is not doing. They let politicians and governmental action (or inaction) steal their peace and rest in Christ. They just “wallow” in their “stinking” thinking. I believe that we would be surprised to know how deeply our culture influences our thought life and how much it can trigger fleshly thoughts of lust, envy, anger, anxiety, etc.

Engaging God: Ask God to reveal to you where you may not be aware that the world is negatively impacting your thoughts and are causing you to lust for the things of the world.

Satan, as the god of this world, will use the things of the world to NEGATIVELY influence your thinking.

5. Distracting Thoughts of Daily Living

Throughout each day we can be distracted from our walk with God just by the everyday issues of life. Taking care of kids, job, activities, etc. are not necessarily sinful or Satanic, but they can distract us from our walk with God. Satan can certainly use our checklists as a strategy to distract us from our walk with the Lord.

“Busy-ness” is another way that we can lose our focus on Christ and lose the battle of the mind. It seems like we are filling every minute with activity. “Busy-ness” has become so pandemic that I believe it has become the substitute for thinking about or spending time with God.

As busy as we make ourselves, I wonder if we believe that FULFILLMENT in life comes from being busy every moment rather than from spending time communing with God?

Another ploy of Satan/demons is to keep you distracted. He knows only too well the damage that he can create by just keeping you distracted from spending time in focusing on and abiding in Christ. He will use any and every form of distraction to keep you from thinking on Christ.

Engaging God: Ask the Holy Spirit to expose where your “busy-ness” is taking you away from time that could be spent with Him. Ask the Spirit as well to reveal where Satan may be using distraction as a ploy to keep you from thinking about or spending time with God.

Satan will use BENIGN thoughts of daily living to keep us distracted from God.
DAY THREE

You CANNOT Win This Battle!

Before we go any further in this study of the battle of the mind, we must first understand a basic, fundamental truth:

You CANNOT win the battle of your mind using your OWN strength and willpower.

This is another application of John 15:5:

“…..apart from Me you can do NOTHING…”

God knew that without His power indwelling us, we would never overcome the power of the flesh, the power of sin, or Satan/demons. What are some reasons why we can’t win this battle independent of God:

• We can be deceived in our thinking.
• We can’t discern between the truthful thoughts and the lying thoughts.
• We have taken ownership of thoughts that do not line up with God’s truth for so long that they have become reinforced lying beliefs that we cannot free ourselves from.
• Our willpower and intellect alone are no match for the thoughts inserted into our minds by the flesh, the power of sin, and Satan/demons.

Have you tried to win this battle in your own strength? If so, how is it working for you?

The VICTOR In The Battle Lives Within You!

Only the power of God can fight this battle. We see this in 2 Corinthians 10:4:

“The weapons we use in our fight are not the world’s weapons but God’s powerful weapons, which we use to destroy strongholds.”

So many believers that I have discipled early on believed that they could win the battle in their minds in their own strength and willpower. However, winning the battle of the mind is like living the Christian life. There is only One Person who can accomplish it, and that is the Holy Spirit. Look at Romans 8:13:

“for if you are living according to the flesh, you must die; but if by the Spirit you are putting to death the deeds of the body, you will live.”

When Jesus said in John 15:5 that “apart from Me you can do nothing,” part of what He meant is that apart from the power of the Holy Spirit, you cannot win the battle of the mind. This is another reason why God put the fullness of Himself in us.
“For in Him all the fullness of Deity dwells in bodily form, and in Him you have been made complete, and He is the head over all rule and authority.” Colossians 2: 9, 10

Key Truth:

Only the HOLY SPIRIT in you can win the battle of the mind.

Here are key truths concerning the Holy Spirit’s part in winning the battle in your mind.

As your Victor the Holy Spirit will:

1. Teach you God’s truth. John 14:26
2. Make God’s truth become revelation to you. John 16:13
3. Renew your mind to believe God’s truth. Romans 12:2
4. Discern for you truthful versus lying thoughts. 1 Corinthians 2:12
5. Remind you of God’s truth in the midst of the battle. John 14:26
6. Overpower your enemies in this battle. 2 Corinthians 10:4

Taking Your Thoughts Captive – Can You Do It?

Before we talk about how we engage the Holy Spirit to fight this battle, I want to explore one other key truth. Let’s look at 2 Corinthian 10:4, 5

“...we (Christ in us) destroy arguments and every proud obstacle raised up against the knowledge of God, and we (Christ in us) take every thought captive to obey Christ.”

2 Corinthians 10:4b, 5 (Parentheses mine)

You will see that I have inserted parentheses within this verse. It is key to understand that Paul is not saying that the responsibility for destroying speculations or taking every thought captive is your responsibility.

The truth is that APART from the Holy Spirit taking those thoughts captive THROUGH you, you CANNOT take your thoughts captive.

What Paul means through this verse is that the Holy Spirit can discern and can tell whether the thought is from God, the flesh, or Satan. In addition to the Holy Spirit discerning our thoughts, He wants to build within our minds a “divine filter” as we participate with Him.

Truths Concerning Engaging The Holy Spirit To Win The Battle Of The Mind

“Therefore, prepare your minds for action, keep sober in spirit, fix your hope completely on the grace to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ.” 1 Peter 1:13
1. THINK About What You Are Thinking About.

“As a man thinks in his heart, so is he.” Proverbs 23:7

The first thing that we need to do is to be more aware of what thoughts are coming into our minds. We have developed habits of taking ownership of thoughts that God does not want us to take ownership of.

Therefore, begin to take an inventory of:

Recurring thoughts - Many of our recurring thoughts can be those which are tied to our lying beliefs.

Fleshly thoughts - Look at the flesh patterns that you marked down in Lesson Two, and identify some of the fleshly thoughts that revolve around your fleshly behavior.

Fantasy thoughts - If you tend to fantasize, take inventory of those thoughts.

Evil thoughts - Take inventory of recurring evil thoughts because they are almost always associated with the Satanic or demonic.

The key is to take steps of faith in bringing God’s discernment to bear on your thought patterns. A step of faith might look like the following:

“Lord, I am asking You to give me a greater awareness of what I am thinking. Expose any thinking that is sinful.”

Engaging God: Ask the Holy Spirit to give you a greater awareness of what you are thinking about.

2. Ask God To Reveal The ORIGIN of Your Thoughts.

“Examine yourselves to see whether you are in the faith; test yourselves. Do you not realize that Christ Jesus is in you—unless, of course, you fail the test?” 2 Corinthians 13:5

The key thing that we need to understand in 2 Corinthians 13:5 is that when Paul is telling us to examine ourselves, he means to bring the Holy Spirit’s discernment into play to examine our thoughts and to tell us the origin of that thought. There are some thoughts that come into your mind that you need to examine and ask God to tell you the origin of that thought. The next diagram illustrates engaging God to discern for you the origin of your thoughts:
Engaging God: Ask the Holy Spirit to give you a greater awareness of what you are thinking about. Ask Him to reveal the origin of your thoughts.

Sinful thoughts: It is important to understand that sinful thoughts will be exposed by the Holy Spirit. The problem is that we may not be aware of the Spirit’s exposure. Therefore, a step of faith might look like the following:

“Lord, I am trusting You to increase my awareness and sensitivity to sinful thoughts.”

Engaging God: Ask the Holy Spirit to increase your awareness and sensitivity to sinful thoughts as they occur.

As you take steps of faith, you will become more SENSITIVE to the Holy Spirit’s exposure of SINFUL thoughts.

DAY FOUR

3. Ask God to REVEAL The Truth Concerning Your Thoughts.

“But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all truth.” John 16:13a

Since one of the responsibilities of the Holy Spirit is to reveal the truth to you, ask God to reveal to you what the truth is concerning the thoughts that you are thinking.
Engaging God: Begin asking God to reveal to you what is the truth concerning your thoughts.

3. When The Spirit Exposes Sinful, Lying, Deceiving, Tempting, Fleshly, or Condemning Thoughts, REFUSE to take ownership and ENTRUST Your Fleshly Thoughts To God.

a. Refuse To Take Ownership of The Thoughts

“do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its evil desires.” Romans 6:12

Once the Holy Spirit has revealed to you the truth of the thought, you can refuse to take ownership of any thought that is not of God. In Christ’s power you have His power to say “NO” to any sinful, fleshly thought. As someone once said, “If a fleshly or lying thought comes through the front door of your mind, simply open the back door and let it out.”

IN addition, God wants you to entrust that thought to Him by faith for Him to take captive. Entrustment means that you give God the ownership of that thought. If you don’t entrust that lying/fleshly thought to God, the temptation is to continue thinking this thought until you take ownership of the thought and let that thought cause you to sin.

The problem is that you have been AUTOMATICALLY taking ownership of the recurring fleshly, lying thoughts, and it is easy to continue taking ownership.
Engaging God: Ask God to reveal to you some of the fleshly, lying, or condemning thoughts that you automatically take ownership of without presenting them to God for Him to tell you whether they are true or not. As He reveals those thoughts, draw on His power to say “NO” to these thoughts.

b. Entrust Every These Thoughts To God

“Throw all your worry on Him, because He cares for you.” 1 Peter 5:7 (ISV)

This is why you can’t waste time with your fleshly or lying thoughts. It is crucial that you entrust them to God immediately. That is why Peter says in 1 Peter 5:7 to “throw all your worry on Him.” Throw your temptations, your lies, and your condemnation on the Spirit for Him to take captive.

For example, “Lord, You have revealed to me that I have recurring fearful thoughts. I am asking You to BE my power to say ‘No’ to these thoughts and to not continue taking ownership of these fearful thoughts.”
Engaging God: As God reveals the truth about your thoughts, learn to entrust those fleshly and lying thoughts to God.

What If You Take Ownership of A Lying or Sinful Thought

If you take ownership of a lying or sinful thought, rest assured, the Spirit will reveal that to you. The problem is that usually it is not just one thought but a string of thoughts. It is like a string of lights. Once you let one in the rest will follow because they are connected. Therefore, as soon as you recognize that the thought is a lie then begin entrusting the thought(s) to the Lord.

“Holy Habits”

Involving the Holy Spirit in our thought life is a process that must be learned. It is like learning to drive a standard transmission. Early on you had to be very focused on the connection between the brake, gas pedal, and the clutch. However, after a period of time you did it automatically. It is the same with your thought life.

At the beginning, it is important to be intentionally focused on engaging the Holy Spirit to reveal the origin and truth of a thought and to entrust those thoughts for the Spirit to take captive. However, as you develop a “holy habit” of doing this, it will come automatically. Let’s look at an example of “holy habits” in the next section called “self-talk.”

DAY FIVE
Other Key Truths To Remember Concerning Your Thought Life

1. Spiritual Filter

Remember that the spiritual filter is God’s truth that you believe. Early on your filter will not be sensitive enough to take every thought captive and you will take ownership of those thoughts. However, as you continue to receive revelation of the truth and believe it, your filter will become more sensitive to the lying, condemning, tempting, etc. thoughts. You will find yourself not taking ownership of thoughts that you once did.

2. Self-Talk

“Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.” 1 John 4:1

Develop a “holy habit” of thinking or speaking out loud God’s truth. I do this especially when the battle is raging in my mind. (There is always a battle but there are times when the battle is more intense than others.) It is a way of reminding you of what the truth is and it is a way to “test the spirits” to see if what you are thinking is the truth or is a lie.

3. When You Are Tempted To Live In The Future Or In The Past, FIX Your Eyes On Christ In The Present Moment.

“fixing our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith…” Hebrews 12:2

Most Christians live in the “what ifs” of the future or the “if onlys” of the past. “What if I don’t get this promotion? If only I had made a different decision, things would be different today.” I believe that if you were to take a daily inventory of your thoughts, you would find yourself amazed at how many of those thoughts focus on the “what ifs” or the “if onlys.” Dwelling on the past or the future can produce fleshly thoughts of anger, anxiety, regrets, insecurity, etc. It also robs you of the peace, rest, and joy that you have in Christ in the present moment.
What if I get fired.
If only I had taken that job.

The truth is that you cannot afford to live in the past or in the future. Why? It is because that you do not have the God of “I will be” or the God of “I was.” Your God is the God of the “I AM.” In other words, God does not want you to squander the present life, peace, and rest for anxious, worrisome, condemning, and guilty thoughts of the future or the past.

As God renews your mind, you will see the FUTILITY (and waste of time) to live from the “WHAT IFS” or the “IF ONLYS” in life.

Engaging God: Ask God to reveal the “what ifs” or the “if onlys” that your mind is dwelling upon. Entrust those thoughts to Him, and ask Him to keep your eyes fixed on Him moment by moment.

For example: “Lord, reveal to me where I am focusing on the past or the future rather than on You. Move me to a place of willingness to not focus on the ‘what ifs’ or the ‘if onlys.’”

4. A Litmus Test For Whether or Not A Thought Is A CONDEMNING Thought

“Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.” Romans 8:1

“and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ—the righteousness that comes from God and is by faith.” Philippians 3:9
I know that many Christians experience self-condemning thoughts. These self-condemning thoughts usually arise when we sin, catch ourselves thinking in the flesh, or fail to measure up to what we think that God expects as to where we should be in our Christian walk. I find that many Christians spend more time in self-condemnation for these things than in the actual sin or the fleshly thinking that brought on the self-condemnation.

The key truth to remember is that our CONDEMNATION was COMPLETELY dealt with at the cross. You are NO longer condemned!

One of the most crucial verses to the Christian is Romans 8:1. Since you are in Christ, there is no more condemnation for you as a Christian. The truth is that according to Philippians 3:9, you are RIGHTeous. This means that you do not have to spend even a moment condemning yourself. God no longer condemns you, so why should you? If you are unsure whether or not you are experiencing self-condemning thoughts, add the words “in Christ” to your thoughts.

For example, the thought may be, “I am a failure,” or “I am unworthy.” This may sound like the truth to you. But when you say, “I am a failure in Christ,” or “I am unworthy in Christ,” you can readily see that this is a lie.

Inserting the words “IN CHRIST” will expose whether or not the thought is from God or not.
Engaging God: Ask God to reveal any thoughts that you have that might be self-condemning. Use the words “in Christ” with some of your thoughts to expose whether or not they are condemning. As these self-condemning thoughts come to mind, ask God to remind you and renew your mind to the truth that “there is no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus” (Romans 8:1).

Remember That There Are No PACIFISTS In This Battle.

“Timothy, ….fight the good fight.” 1 Timothy 1:18

There are no pacifists nor anyone sitting on the sidelines in this battle. Even though there may be Christians that are acting like conscientious objectors, you cannot afford to not fight this battle. That is why Paul exhorts Timothy to fight. If you do not enter into the battle, it means that you have already given up the battle. You must fight this fight in the Spirit with alertness and vigilance as it says in 1 Thessalonians 5:6:

“so then let us not sleep as others do, but let us be alert and sober” 1 Thessalonians 5:6

If you do NOT enter into the battle, you have already LOST it!

Engaging God: Ask the Holy Spirit to reveal the areas where you have not entered into and are not fighting the fight.

Summary

I hope that this lesson has been helpful in gaining a better understanding of what it means to engage the Holy Spirit to fight the battle for your mind. In the next lesson we will see how Satan influences our thought life.
Lesson Three

Satanic Influence On Your Thought Life

Spiritual Warfare

“The god of this world has blinded the minds of unbelievers, so that they cannot see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God.”

2 Corinthians 4:4

DAY ONE

Introduction

We talked in Lesson Two about Satan and his demonic forces being enemies of our minds. I think that it would be profitable to spend a lesson focusing on the influence that Satan has on our minds and on how to engage God in spiritual warfare to deal with Satan and the demonic forces. Satan/demons hate God. They rebelled against God early on, and they know that their eventual eternal destiny is hell. Their primary objective is to do everything in their power to keep mankind from being saved. Once you are saved, their objective is to steal, kill, and destroy your walk with Christ. Therefore, we will explore some of the enemies’ strategies and how to engage God’s power to deal with Satan/demonic.

Dealing With Satan and His Demonic Forces

Satan is your only historian. He has kept very meticulous records on your entire life. He and his demonic forces know your weaknesses, your flesh patterns, and your lying beliefs. They know exactly the areas where you are most vulnerable. Therefore, they attempt to draw you away from your walk with God by triggering the power of sin and your flesh patterns. Satan and his demonic forces are ruthless in that they will use lies, temptation, deceit, and condemnation to draw you away from your faith walk.

“The god of this world has blinded the minds of unbelievers, so that they cannot see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God.”

2 Corinthians 4:4

The word “devour” in 1 Peter 5:8 means “to destroy” in the original Greek. Think about this for a moment. Satan/demons are intentionally seeking to destroy Christians and non-Christians. Destruction for non-Christians means that Satan/demons will try to keep them from being saved at the very least and at the other extreme will try to get them to commit suicide. What are some examples of how Satan/demons can destroy Christians?

Satan and his demons can come against Christians by:

• Distracting them from their faith walk with God.
• Keeping them in bondage to their lying beliefs.
• Keeping them in ongoing defeat concerning their defeating sin patterns.
• Turning them back to themselves to be the source for life.
• Persuading them to deal with their problems independently of God.
• Moving them to a place of committing suicide.

This is why Christians must be very aware of the power and capability of Satan/demons. We do not have to fear their power, but we must be spiritually knowledgeable and vigilant concerning them.

Before we go any further in the study, I want to address the issue of the indwelling of Satan/demons versus the influence of Satan/demons in our lives.

KEY TRUTH

Satan and his demons CANNOT INDWELL you as a Christian. Because you are in union with God, Satan and his demons can now only try to INFLUENCE your soul. They cannot indwell it.

We see in 2 Corinthians 12:7 that Satan can bring his demons against our soul. This is what happened to Paul when Satan sent him a demon (messenger of Satan) to torment him:

“To keep me from becoming conceited because of these surpassingly great revelations, there was given me a thorn in my flesh, a messenger of Satan, to torment me.” 2 Corinthians 12:7

We see in 2 Corinthians 12:7 that Satan can bring his demons against our soul. This is what happened to Paul when Satan sent him a demon (messenger of Satan) to torment him:

“To keep me from becoming conceited because of these surpassingly great revelations, there was given me a thorn in my flesh, a messenger of Satan, to torment me.” 2 Corinthians 12:7
Satan’s Strategy

“The thief comes only to steal, kill, and destroy…” John 10:10a

We must remember that Satan’s strategy is three-fold: steal, kill, and destroy. Satan wants to steal the rest, joy, and peace that we have in Christ, to kill our momentum of walking by faith, and to destroy our desire and willingness to continue depending upon God.

Let’s look at some of the ways that Satan/demons implement this strategy.

Satan’s/Demon’s Strategy Part One - INSERTION Of Their Thoughts Into Our Minds

It is important to remember that Satan and his demonic forces know our past history. They know our strengths and weaknesses. They know intimately our flesh patterns and the strength of those flesh patterns. Therefore, they can strategize on how best to keep us focused on ourself and to use our flesh patterns against us to draw us into sin. Their strategy focuses on our thought life. Therefore, part of their strategy is to insert fleshly, lying, condemning, and tempting thoughts into our minds.

Read Matthew 16:21-23 below to see a perfect biblical example of Satan’s strategy to insert thoughts into our minds:

> “From that time on Jesus began to explain to his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things at the hands of the elders, chief priests and teachers of the law, and that he must be killed and on the third day be raised to life. 22 Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. ‘Never, Lord!’ he said. ‘This shall never happen to you!’” Matthew 16:21-22

> “But He (Jesus) turned and said to Peter, ‘Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to Me; for you are not setting your mind on God’s interests, but man’s.’” Matthew 16:23 (Parenthesis mine)

When Peter responded to what Jesus told His disciples about His death and resurrection, Jesus’s response was, “Get behind Me, Satan.” Jesus knew who was behind the thoughts that were verbalized by Peter. Jesus knew that Satan had introduced those thoughts because He did not address Peter. Rather, He addressed Satan. Since Satanic/demonic thoughts come in the form of first person, then it can be extremely difficult (if not impossible) for us to discern whether or not our thoughts are our own or whether they are from Satan himself.

DAY TWO

The key truth to remember concerning Satan and your thought life is:

> When Satan/demons insert thoughts into your mind, they will come in FIRST person and will sound a lot like your voice.

When Satan inserts thoughts into your mind, they will never be in third person. They will always come in first person (“I” or “me”) in order to persuade you that the thought originated with you. The diagram below reveals different types of thoughts that Satan/demons can insert into your mind as well as what they might sound like in first person.

Another scheme of the enemy is to insert thoughts that blame God such as, “God is the one responsible for why I am in this mess. He is the cause of all this pain.” If you take ownership of these thoughts, then you will be blaming God instead of realizing that Satan was the origin of these thoughts.

Questions: Are there any areas in your life where you are blaming God for something? Ask God to reveal if Satan/demons are behind that thinking.

Engaging God: Begin asking God to expose any lying, tempting, condemning, or fleshly thoughts that you are having that may be coming from Satan/demons.

Satan/demons are capable of INSERTING fleshly, lying, condemning, and tempting thoughts into your mind.

Satan’s/Demon’s Strategy Part Two - DECEPTION

“But I am afraid, lest as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your minds should be led astray from the simplicity and purity of devotion to Christ.” 2 Corinthians 11:3

“And no wonder, for Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light.” 2 Corinthians 11:14

Satan’s objective is to insert these first person thoughts into your mind with the hope that you will take ownership of them by believing that they are your own thoughts. This is the great deception of Satan. This is where He is most dangerous. Why? If you take ownership of Satan’s/demon’s thoughts, they then can keep you in bondage to your lying beliefs and further draw you into false conclusions.

For example, Satan or his demons might insert first person condemning thoughts such as, “Why can’t I attain victory over my sin problem? I keep getting defeated over and over again. I must be doing something wrong.” If you stay focused on these Satanic/demonic thoughts, then they might deceive you further by tempting you to come to false conclusions such as, “God is not really working in my life. He must really not want me to change. I think that I am going to give up on God.” If you take ownership of these thoughts and act on these thoughts, then you will conclude that you need to go back to the flesh and take control because God is not going to come through for you.

| DECEPTION is the key strategy of Satan and his demons. |
| They constantly try to deceive you by making you believe that your OWN mind is the origin of THEIR thoughts. |

Engaging God: Ask God to reveal to you if Satan/demons are trying to deceive you concerning recurring fleshly or sinful thoughts.

DAY THREE

Satan’s/Demon’s Strategy Part Three - Persuading You To DOUBT God

“Now the serpent was more crafty than any of the wild animals the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, ‘Did God really say, ‘You must not eat from any tree in the garden?’” Genesis 3:1

“When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it.” Genesis 3:6

As we saw in the Garden of Eden, Satan/demon’s objective is to create havoc in your soul by persuading you to doubt God, His love, His power, His goodness, and His desire for your transformation, etc. Satan knows that if he can just create one ounce of doubt, you will be tempted to turn back to your flesh to live life in your own self-effort.

For example, let’s assume that you lose a close friend through a freak accident. Look at the next illustration to see how Satan might use this to create doubt in your mind about God and to turn you away from trusting Him.
Engaging God: Ask God to expose whether or not the thoughts behind your doubts are coming from Satan/demons.

How Do We Engage God To Deal With Satan and His Demons?

1. LEARN the truth about Satan from God’s Word Develops Our Spiritual Filter

   Learning God’s truth will build the “spiritual filter” that we talked about previously. As we learn the truth, and receive revelation from the Holy Spirit about the truth, then our spiritual filter will be developed to be more discerning, entrusting, and not taking ownership of Satanic/demonic thoughts. There are four key truths that we need to learn about Satan:

   a. Be VIGILANT concerning the schemes and strategies of Satan/demons.

      “Be of sober spirit, be on the alert. Your adversary, the devil, prowls about like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour.” 1 Peter 5:8

      “lest Satan should take advantage of us; for we are not ignorant of his schemes.” 2 Corinthians 2:11

   We have already discussed several of Satan’s strategies. The key in dealing with Satan’s strategies is spiritual vigilance. I simply define spiritual vigilance as staying spiritually aware and sensitive to the Holy Spirit’s revelation of Satan’s schemes. Ultimately, Satan’s main objective is to keep you focused upon yourself as the source to live life.
b. We, in our own power, are POWERLESS to fight Satan and his demons.

“But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, so that the surpassing greatness of the power will be of God and not from ourselves.” 2 Corinthians 4:7

Since we are fighting an unseen enemy, we can’t possibly fight Satan and his demonic forces. Therefore, do not talk to Satan or his demons. That is God’s job. Your part is to engage God and His power to deal with these enemies.

c. Satan and his demons are powerless when we walk in God’s POWER.

“And then the lawless one (Satan) will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will overthrow with the breath of his mouth and destroy by the splendor of his coming.” 2 Thessalonians 2:8 (Parenthesis mine)

“Therefore, since the children share in flesh and blood, He Himself likewise also partook of the same, that through death He (Jesus) might render powerless him (Satan) who had the power of death, that is, the devil.” Hebrews 2:14 (Parentheses mine)

“You are from God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world.” 1 John 4:4

As we walk by faith, we are walking in God’s power over Satan/demons. This is another key reason why it is so critical to walk by faith. Satan is a “toothless” lion when we depend upon, rest upon, and draw upon God’s power.

Engaging God: Seek God to give you greater revelation of the truth concerning Satan and his demons.

DAY FOUR

d. Now that you are in union with God, you have His FULL protection (ARMOR).

“Put on the full armor of God so that you (in God’s power) can take your stand against the devil’s schemes.” Ephesians 6:11 (Parenthesis mine)

The moment you are saved God makes His armor available to you. The armor is Christ Himself. However, you have a choice to make and that is to put on the armor or not. As you walk dependently upon God, you are wearing (and have the full protection of) His armor. However, when you choose to walk in fleshly independence from God then you, in effect, have taken your armor off. God’s armor can no longer offer you no protection against your flesh, the power of sin and Satan/demonic.

Now it is up to YOU to protect yourself against all your internal and external enemies. You might as well have your hands tied behind your back because you are defenseless against all of these enemies. Therefore, it is crucial that you continue to walk by faith so that the armor of God will continually protect you from the “fiery darts” of the enemy.
“above all, taking the shield of faith with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one.” Ephesians 6:16

Engaging God: Seek God to give you a greater desire to walk in His armor so that you will be able to withstand the fiery darts of the enemy.

2. Ask the Holy Spirit to REVEAL to you if the thoughts that you are thinking are of Satan/demons.

“Dear friends, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God...” 1 John 4:1

Let’s assume that you have a thought to get even with a friend who rejected you. Let’s also assume that this thought came from Satan. It might sound like, “I can’t believe that my friend said that to me. I can’t let this go. I am going to have to get even with this person.”

Before you act on that thought, ask God to tell you who was the origin of that thought. Listen closely to what the Holy Spirit reveals to you. The following is an illustration of what this might look like:

Engaging God: Develop a habit of asking the Holy Spirit to reveal the origin of your thoughts. Ask Him to expose those thoughts that are coming from Satan/demons.

3. ENTRUST The Satanic/Demonic thoughts to God, and ask the Holy Spirit to take those thoughts captive.

Once the Holy Spirit reveals to you that the thoughts are coming from Satan/demons, entrust those thoughts to Him for Him to take captive. Remember that entrusting the thoughts to God... means that you are not taking ownership of those Satanic/demonic thoughts. It means that you are handing them over to God for Him to take captive.

Entrust The Satanic/Demonic Thoughts To God For Him To Take Captive

Lord, I am entrusting this thought to You to take captive.

DAY FIVE

4. If the thoughts keep coming, KEEP drawing on God’s POWER to remove those thoughts.

"Submit therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you." James 4:7

Many times Satan will not insert a thought only once. He may continue to insert the same thought over and over again in order to wear your faith down to a place where you will finally take ownership of that thought and give in to sin. Therefore, you must persist in drawing upon God’s power to remove those thoughts.

In James 4:7 you can see that you must submit your thoughts to God, and God will resist Satan/demons through you. Apart from God you are not the one to resist Satan. You are powerless to do that in your own strength.

It may take some time before Satan FINALLY gives up, so continue to seek God to REMOVE any Satanic/demonic thoughts.
The diagram on the following page uses “The Line” analogy to show how we continue to draw on God’s power to deal with Satanic/demonic thoughts. Reading from left to right, you first have Satan/demons inserting a fleshly thought in your mind below “The Line.” If you go above “The Line” and engage God’s power, then you entrust the thought to Him. However, the enemy may come at you again with the same sinful thought below “The Line.” You then must go above “The Line” and once again seek God’s power to remove that thought. This process may have to go on and on until the enemy quits attacking you with those thoughts.

5. When you sense that you are under DEMONIC attack, seek God and His power to send those demons away who may be OPPRESSING you.

There will be times in your faith walk that you will experience ongoing oppression by Satan or demons. It will feel like an all-out attack on your mind. You cannot keep them from influencing your mind in your own strength. Therefore, ask God to use His power to remove the Satanic/demonic influence that is oppressing you. Here again you may have to fight the fight of faith by continually asking God to remove the oppression. During a demonic attack, the demons will not usually give up after only one attack. This is especially true in areas of your reinforced lying beliefs and sin strongholds. This is illustrated in the next diagram.

Using “The Line” analogy, let’s assume that you come under demonic attack. Immediately seek God in His power to send the demons away. This may have to be repeated several times depending upon the severity of the attack. The key is to continue seeking God in His power to remove the demonic influence until the attack is over.

Thickening Your Armor (What Happens As We Walk By Faith)

There is an analogy that I share that we need to talk further about concerning Satanic and demonic strategies in our lives. We know that the moment we are saved we have access to the full armor of God. The armor is Christ Himself Who is the truth. However, early on our armor is very thin due to unbelief. However, as we grow in, believe and walk in the truth our armor thickens and we are more and more able to withstand the fiery darts of the enemy. However, since the enemy knows our history, He is constantly looking for the weak spots in your armor. Therefore, it is crucial to continue walking by faith so that your armor will thicken and you will be able to stand firm against the enemy’s attack.

Summary

There is so much more that we can say about Satan and his demonic forces. However, the key truth in this part of the study is that you are defenseless against Satan/demons apart from the power of the Holy Spirit. However, as you engage God, the Holy Spirit will expose the thoughts that are from Satan/demons and will take those thoughts captive.
Lesson Four

Healing Of Our Damaged Emotions and Woundedness

“He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.”

DAY ONE

Introduction

In this lesson we will focus on healing of our damaged emotions and the woundedness that resides in our soul. We will explore the sources of our woundedness as well as God’s process of healing. I trust that if you struggle in this area that God will use these truths to begin the healing process.

What Do We Need To Understand About Emotions?

From the beginning God created us with emotions as part of the makeup of our soul. This is part of our “human-ness.” Emotions are a gift from God. They allow us to express our feelings about all that has happened or is happening in our lives.

A noted author writes, “Emotions are God’s indicators of what is going on inside. They are neither good nor bad. They are amoral and are just part of your humanity. Just like you respond to the warnings of physical pain, you need to learn to respond to your emotional indicators.”

When emotions are in line with God’s truth, we are then functioning in them as God intended. However, when emotions are tied to or flow from our lying beliefs, they become damaged emotions and can create havoc in our soul. Look at the first damaged emotions in the Garden of Eden after the Fall:

“Then the Lord God called to Adam and said to him, ‘Where are you?’ So he said, ‘I heard Your voice in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; and I hid myself.’” Genesis 3:9, 10

The question is, “Why were Adam and Eve experiencing fear?” Before the Fall they never experienced fear, especially fear of God. Why did they hide themselves from God? They hid themselves as a result of their sin and their lying belief that they were to be afraid of God. As a result of their independent decision to not believe God, they experienced a damaged emotion of fear that they had never experienced before.
Exercise: Write down the damaged emotions that you feel when your lying beliefs are triggered (e.g., anxiety, fear, inadequacy, guilt, condemnation, etc.).

DAMAGED emotions are those emotions that are tied to and are the product of our lying beliefs.

Jesus Had Emotions Too!

“For we do not have a high priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but One who has been tempted in all things as we are, yet without sin.” Hebrews 4:15

“Then He said to them, ‘My soul is deeply grieved, to the point of death; remain here and keep watch with Me.’” Matthew 26:38

Jesus in His humanity had feelings and emotions just like you and me have. He was not exempt from the same emotions that we feel. Why? One reason is that in order for Jesus to empathize with us, He had to feel the pain of our emotions (Hebrews 4:15). Jesus wept as He saw the grief of His friends over the death of Lazarus (John 11), and Jesus was excited at the centurion’s faith (Matthew 8). We see His anger at the temple when He overturned the tables (John 13), and His grief at the Garden of Gethsemane (Matthew 26:38).

Why is it important that we remember that Jesus had our same emotions? It is because day by day and moment by moment, Jesus had to make the same choices that we have to make. Just as we experience, Jesus Himself was presented with the same question, “Are You going to live from Your emotions, or are You going to live moment by moment in dependence upon the Father and His truth?”

Had you ever considered that if Jesus had chosen to live out of His own emotions instead of His dependence upon His Father that He might NOT have gone to the cross for us?

Damaged or Deceiving Emotions

Damaged Emotions

Damaged emotions are a result of repeated negative messages, abuse, trauma, etc. Let’s go back to some of the negative messages that you heard growing up such as, “You are no good! You are a failure! I don’t love you!” (Remember that these can be verbal or non-verbal messages.) Let’s assume for a moment that those messages left you feeling inadequate, unworthy, or insecure. As you start believing that these messages are true of you, then the tendency is to feel inadequate, unworthy, and/or insecure whenever similar messages are said to you today.

Deceiving Emotions

Deceiving emotions are derived primarily from positive messages and circumstances. If they come from positive messages such as, “You can do it. There is nothing that you can’t do,” etc., you might feel self-confident and self-assured. Why are these emotions deceiving? They are deceiving because they can strengthen your independent, self-sufficient attitude which will result in YOU attempting to live the Christian life independently of God.

The “Emotional” Swing

Feelings flow from our soul every moment. We experience positive emotions such as love or happiness, and we experience negative emotions such as fear or anger. It is like being on a swing. We swing back and forth in our soul from positive to negative emotions. We don’t mind swinging towards positive emotions, but when we begin to experience negative emotions, we want to swing away from them. We want to try to control the swing, but the truth is that we can’t stop the emotions from swinging. The next diagram illustrates this truth:

!Our Emotions Are Like A Swing

In God’s design our emotions were meant to swing. It is part of our soulical makeup. However, God wants to work through our emotions. As God transforms our souls, He wants us to experience positive emotions such as joy or happiness. When we experience negative emotions, He uses them to reveal to us our fleshly attitudes or our lying beliefs. He allows our emotions to show us that we need to turn to God as our Source for Him to deal with what is behind any negative emotions.
For example, you just find out that you have a life-threatening health issue. At the moment when you get the bad news, the negative emotions of fear or worry may come to the surface. The decision will be to either entrust the fear and worry to God or to hold onto the fear and worry yourself. If you hold on to those negative emotions, they can overcome you and control you. However, if you entrust those negative emotions to God, then He can be your Source of comfort and peace.

As much as we would like to avoid or not feel negative emotions, it is impossible to do so. That is why it is important to know that feelings are just indicators of what is going on inside and that there is no need to attempt to try to control them. However, when feelings are wrapped around lying beliefs, a larger problem exists.

As much as we would like to control the SWING of our emotions, it is impossible.

However, God will use our emotions in His transformation process.

Feelings and Your Belief Systems

Any repeated message in our mind can result in feelings that may or may not be true, but they can be accepted as being true. If the repeated lying messages are not dealt with through the grid of God’s truth, then the feelings associated with those messages can turn into lying beliefs. “I feel” becomes “I believe that I am.” Once the lying belief is accepted as being true, the feelings associated with it are no longer questioned. The feelings themselves then dictate to an individual what truth is. This results in fleshly behaviors being consistent with the feelings. These emotions become “damaged” emotions because they are lying to us.

In the next diagram we see that what we feel and believe have become one and the same. When these damaged emotions that are wrapped around the associated lying beliefs are touched, they can lead to fleshly behaviors in the same way that our lying beliefs can lead us to fleshly behaviors.
Feelings Are Tied To Your Lying Beliefs

“I Feel” To “I Believe That I Am”

Let’s look at this process of how damaged and deceiving emotions can lead to lying beliefs. We will start with a damaging emotion.

Example: Let’s assume that for the most part you failed in meeting your parents’ expectations. You begin to have feelings associated with that failure. As a result of your failure, you might say:

I FEEL unacceptable or unworthy.

Because I FEEL this way,

I ACT as if I AM unacceptable or unworthy.

Because I FEEL and ACT this way,

I BELIEVE that I AM not acceptable or that I AM not worthy.

Because I FEEL and ACT and BELIEVE this way,

I make it a FACT by saying, “I AM unacceptable” or “I AM unworthy.”

Going from feelings to beliefs to facts is largely an unconscious event that takes place over a period of time or perhaps years. The previous example began with damaged emotions. Let’s see how a belief system can be formed around deceiving emotions.
Let's assume that your parents constantly reinforced the message that you could do no wrong. You might say to yourself:

I FEEL self-confident or self-sufficient.

Because I FEEL this way,

I ACT as if I AM self-confident or self-sufficient.

Because I FEEL and ACT this way,

I BELIEVE that I am self-confident or that I am self-sufficient.

Because I FEEL and ACT and BELIEVE this way,

I make it a FACT by saying, “I AM self-confident” or “I AM self-sufficient.”

How Those “Feeling” Beliefs Affect You Today

How do your beliefs affect you today? One of two things happens on a continuing basis. Either a similar event takes place that triggers your feelings which in turns triggers your beliefs, or that event can trigger your beliefs which are followed by the feelings associated with your beliefs.

For example, you walk in to work today, and the boss says without any warning or explanation that this is your last day at your job. Your emotions respond first with feelings of unacceptability or unworthiness followed by the lying belief system that reinforces your feelings. Or, your lying belief system responds first with the belief that you are unacceptable or unworthy and your feelings quickly follow to reinforce your beliefs. Therefore, when similar events come into your life that trigger your feelings and/or beliefs, your tendency will be to continue to believe the lies.

REMEMBER: Every time that an event causes you to confirm what is in your belief system, you are reinforcing that belief system. Therefore, if your belief system does not line up with God’s Word, you continue reinforcing your lying beliefs.

Emotions – Thoughts and Behavior

It is not the thought that suddenly appears in our mind that causes behaviors or attitudes. The thought must find something to partner with. The thing within us that makes a thought controlling or causes us to accept the thought without question is our feeling about the thought. All of this has roots in our beliefs that may be forgotten or denied.

If a thought can’t find other similar thoughts or emotions, it is only a fleeting thought.

Our response is that we let it go.

OR

58
A thought comes into the mind and finds other thoughts like itself to unite with. There is a meeting of past thoughts and emotions with the current thoughts and emotions, and they empower each other to impact our behavior.

Example: I see a semi truck approaching as I am driving down the road. A thought enters my mind such as, “I could turn into that truck at just the last minute.” That thought finds no feelings or emotions that it can attach to that are in agreement with it. It is just a random thought that comes and goes. But, if life has dealt me a tragedy, and I begin to feel hopeless, unwanted, shameful, depressed, and that the world would be better off without me, that random thought takes on power because of my beliefs and their accompanying emotions. More thoughts are produced, and more emotions come. Strength is given to the new thoughts that are coming alive in me. I am now in danger.

This is the meeting of my past with my present, with my habits being touched with current thoughts. What comes together is the incoming thought, the existing habits of thought, and the resulting emotions that empower each other as behavior begins to take place.

If we have emotions without putting them through a grid of truth, then we will validate and reinforce the way that we feel. So from birth as we respond to life, we continue to reinforce thought patterns and emotions until we lose our freedom and become enslaved to our emotions.

DAY THREE

There Is Nothing Wrong With the Initial Feelings.

“Be angry and do not sin....” Ephesians 4:26

Ephesians 4:26 is telling us that we can have an emotion of anger, but it is not necessarily sin. It can certainly lead to sin, but it points out a very important truth when it comes to our emotions. If someone or something triggers a negative emotion, there is no sin in the emotion. The negative emotion is just an indicator of what is going on in our soul. Emotions are like the indicator lights on the dashboard of our car. When the oil light flashes, it is indicating that we are about to be out of oil. In like manner, our emotions are indicators on our “soulical” dashboard. When we feel anger, fear, guilt, etc., these emotional indicators are telling us that there is a soulical problem.
All that the initial negative emotion is telling us is, “There is a problem, and a choice is needing to be made.” What is the choice? The choice is between choosing to believe the lying belief tied to the emotion or choosing Christ. Therefore, God is using our emotions to reveal to us that we must get above “The Line” in order for Him to deal with the lying beliefs behind those emotions.

For example, you find out you owe $3,000 more on your income taxes and that there is not enough money in your bank account to cover those taxes. Your emotional indicator light goes “on” as you become anxious and fearful. At that very moment you have a choice to make. If you take ownership of those negative feelings, the result will be that the power of sin and the flesh will take over.

You Can Live Above “The Line” Even Though Your Emotions Are Still In Turmoil.

“Come to Me, all who are weary and heavy-laden, and I will give you rest.” Matthew 11:28

“No temptation has overtaken you but such as is common to man; and God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will provide the way of escape also, that you may be able to endure it.” 1 Corinthians 10:13

“Then He said to them, ‘My soul is deeply grieved, to the point of death; remain here and keep ‘My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me; yet not as I will, but as Thou wilt.’” watch with Me.’ And He went a little beyond them, and fell on His face and prayed, saying, Matthew 26:38, 39

Look at Jesus’s soul in the garden of Gethsemane the night before He was to go to the cross. He said in Matthew 26:38 that His soul was “deeply grieved to the point of death.” In other words, Jesus was feeling genuine grief in facing the cross. It was so deep a grief that it resulted in Jesus asking the Father if He could bypass the cross. However, He immediately went to His Spirit and responded with an attitude of obedience. Do you think that the grief of Jesus went away even though He chose to live from His Spirit? I doubt it! I believe that the grief continued all the way to the cross. Jesus chose, as you and I have to do, to live from the Spirit and to not allow the emotions to be in control.
We have the same choice when our emotions are stirred up. We can choose to live above “The Line” “in Christ” and experience His rest and peace even though the emotions are still “swinging” in our souls.

What would this look like in your life? For example, your boss calls you into his office. He is unhappy with your performance. In your soul you may begin to experience anxiety or worry over losing your job or else get angry because you think that your boss is being unfair. However, in the next moment you can go above “The Line” “in Christ” and draw on Christ’s confidence, peace, and rest. It will be an attitude of confidence that God is in control, which results in an attitude of His peace and His rest. Refer to “the line” next diagram that illustrates this point:

How Does God Take Us From Our Lying Beliefs To His Truth?

“Sanctify them in the truth; Thy word is truth” Jn. 17:17

God’s truth is the believer’s new reference point. Remember that faith is not a feeling or an experience. Rather, it is an assurance and a conviction. Faith takes us from “I feel” to “I believe.” Your point of reference is no longer your feelings. Rather, your new point of reference is faith in what God says is true. As you continue to believe God’s truth, you will begin to experience His truth in you. What happens when you start choosing God’s truth by faith over your emotions?

GOD'S TRUTH says that I am adequate in Him.

Because GOD'S TRUTH says that I am adequate in Him,

I NO LONGER CHOOSE to believe the lie that since I feel inadequate, that I am inadequate.

I CHOOSE TO BELIEVE by faith that the word of God is true in that I am adequate in Christ.

Because of GOD’S TRUTH and my FAITH,

I can then WALK IN THE TRUTH that I am adequate in Christ.
Early on in our walk of faith, we may not “experience” any changes in our “feeling” belief systems. However, as we continue to walk in God’s truth by faith, we will begin to experience our beliefs and our emotions lining up with God’s truth.

Sanctification and Emotions

“you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.” John 8:32

Why is sanctification so critical when it comes to our lying emotional beliefs? Without God replacing our lies with His truth, we will simply continue to be under the control of our “squirrel cage” of emotions. God’s purpose in sanctification is to replace our lying emotional belief systems with His truth and to set us free from those lies. As this happens, our emotions will no longer be dictating the truth to us. As we walk by faith, He will conform us to Christ-likeness in Him. It is a process, but we will eventually begin to experience the freedom from our lying beliefs and emotions.

DAY FOUR

What Is Our Part In God’s Process?

1. In The Moment, We Can CHOOSE Jesus As The “I AM” Over Our Emotions.

“I am the way, the truth, and the life…” John 14:6

In any given moment we can be bombarded constantly with thoughts, circumstances, or relationships which can trigger our negative emotions. In any given moment we can feel rejected, out of control, weak, mistreated, etc. Instead of taking ownership of those emotions and the lying beliefs that surround them, we can choose to believe Jesus as our “I AM.”

For example,

I feel inadequate. Jesus says, “I AM your adequacy.” 2 Corinthians 3:5
I feel rejected. Jesus says, “I AM your acceptance.” Romans 15:7
I feel weak. Jesus says, “I AM your strength.” Romans 6:10

In the moment when you choose Christ by faith to be your “I AM,” the feelings may or may not go away. However, as God renews your mind to His truth, and you begin to have an experiential confidence that He is your “need-meeter,” then whether you continue to have the feelings or not is not the issue. You will know in the moment when the feelings come up that you can simply trust Him to meet the need associated with those feelings.

Questions: What are your recurring damaged and deceiving emotions? What are they creating a need for from the supply of Christ?

Engaging God: Begin trusting Christ to be those things that you need in those moments when those damaged or deceiving emotions come to mind.
2. Ask God To REVEAL Your Lying Emotional Beliefs.

“And Jesus answered and said to him, ‘Blessed are you, Simon Barjona, because flesh and blood did not reveal this to you, but My Father who is in heaven.’” Matthew 16:17

Sometimes it is critical to understand what lying beliefs are being triggered by your emotions. However, sometimes we have been living with our lying beliefs and associated damaged emotions so long that we cannot recognize them. Therefore, it is important to seek God to expose those lying beliefs.

Engaging God: Ask God to reveal to you your lying beliefs and the associated damaged and deceiving emotions.

3. ENTRUST Your Damaged Emotions to God the Moment They Come to Mind.

“And while being reviled, He did not revile in return; while suffering, He uttered no threats, but kept entrusting Himself to Him who judges righteously.” 1 Peter 2:23

Don’t take ownership of the damaged emotions associated with your lying beliefs. When they are triggered, immediately entrust them to God and allow Him to deal with them by His truth.

Engaging God: When the damaged emotions that trigger your lying beliefs surface, entrust them to God immediately. Otherwise, if you take ownership of those thoughts, they will serve to reinforce your lying beliefs.

4. Ask God By Faith To REPLACE Your Lying Emotional Beliefs With His Truth.

“If you ask Me anything in My name, I will do it.” John 14:14

Part of trust or presenting ourselves to God is a faith action that simply says, “God, I am asking You to do what only You can do.”

Engaging God: Begin seeking God to renew your mind to the truth and to replace your lying beliefs with His truth.

5. THANK God That He Is At Work In Replacing Your Lies With His Truth.

“in everything give thanks; for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus.” 1 Thessalonians 5:18

Remember that once you ask the Lord by faith to work His truth in you, you do not need to keep asking. Simply thank Him for the work that He is doing in your life.

Engaging God: Develop a holy habit of thanking God throughout the process of renewing your mind to the truth and setting you free.

God’s Process of Healing Our Damaged Emotions Using “The Line” Analogy
Why is transforming the lying beliefs the key? Remember that emotions do not determine the truth. They are just barometers of what is true or false. Therefore, if you replace the lying beliefs with the truth, new emotions will emerge.

What does healing look like using “The Line” analogy? We entrust our lying beliefs with their associated damaged emotions to God by faith. God reveals to us the truth. He then takes that truth and replaces the lying belief with the truth. Once the truth is believed, the healed and healthy emotions will follow:

![Diagram of Healing Of Damaged Emotions]

Examples of steps of faith for God to heal our damaged emotions

Step of faith: “Lord, I feel/believe that I am insecure. The truth is that I am totally secure in You. Therefore, I am asking by faith for You to renew my mind to Your truth and to heal the damaged emotions that I am feeling.”

Step of faith: “I feel/believe that I am self-sufficient. The truth is that my sufficiency can only be in You and not in self. I am trusting You to persuade me of this truth and to transform my feelings/beliefs of self-sufficiency into Christ-sufficiency.”

A Story To Illustrate God’s Healing Process

There was a lady who was sexually abused by her father. As a result, she believed and felt that she was dirty and unworthy to be married. When she got married, she could not have sexual intimacy because of her lying beliefs and associated damaged emotions. When she learned the truth that she was totally adequate in Christ (2 Corinthians 3:5) and engaged God by faith, He revealed to her the truth. He took the revealed truth and transformed her lying belief, and she no longer had the damaged emotions of feeling dirty or unworthy. When she believed God’s truth that she was worthy and adequate in Christ, her damaged emotions of inadequacy and unworthiness were replaced by feelings of adequacy and worthiness.
How Will You Know That God Is Healing Your Damaged Emotions?

When you come to God by faith, you may not initially feel or experience the changes that God is making. This is very true in the case of damaged emotions. As God renews your mind to the truth, the healing of those emotions may take longer to experience. What will be the evidence of your emotions being healed?

- Your lying beliefs will be transformed to a point that when those damaged emotions begin to rise up in your soul, you will believe the truth rather than the lying beliefs.
- The lying beliefs have been replaced by the truth, and the associated damaged emotions begin losing their control over you.
- Your damaged emotions are replaced by emotions that line up with the truth.
- You no longer go to the sinful behaviors that resulted from your lying beliefs and damaged emotions.

Exercise: Refer to the list that you wrote down earlier on your lying beliefs and their associated damaged emotions. Begin asking God to renew your mind to the truth and to heal your damaged emotions. Ask Him to give you evidence of His healing of those damaged emotions.

Healing of Woundedness

“Surely he will save you from the fowler’s snare and from the deadly pestilence. He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge; His faithfulness will be your shield and rampart. You will not fear the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day,”

Psalm 91:3-5

“He will restore the years the locusts have eaten”

Joel 2:25

The Arrows

Since you were born into a fallen world, there were painful “arrows” sent into your life that may have caused woundedness in your life that you are still suffering from today. Some examples of these “arrows” that have come in your life may be an alcoholic father, an emotionally unavailable mother, a sexually abusive stepfather, etc. Or, it could be a traumatic event such as an accident, a physical defect, divorce, suicide, etc. What are the results of these arrows of woundedness?

As a result of these “arrows,” we have developed lying, emotionally-based belief systems about ourselves, others, and God. Such “feeling” lies as, “I feel inadequate,” “I feel dirty,” “I feel unloved,” “I feel guilty,” etc. can produce lying beliefs of unworthiness, shame, self-condemnation, rejection, etc. For example, let’s assume that you were sexually abused as a child. You look at yourself with shame, and you come to believe that you are unworthy. Your lying belief is so strong that you feel like you are not worthy of love, especially of a man. Let’s assume that a godly man comes into your life, and it is God’s will for you two to get married. However, you feel so unworthy that even with God’s provision of a godly man who is meant for you, you can’t go through with the marriage because of your stronghold of unworthiness. You find yourself defending the lie that you are unworthy and are not allowing God to give you His grace and truth. John Eldridge says this about the “arrows” in his book Sacred Romance:

“How can we keep our heart alive in the face of such deadly arrows? How many losses can a heart take? If we deny the wounds or try to minimize them, we deny a part of our heart and end up living a shallow optimism that frequently becomes a demand that the world be better than it is. On the other hand, if we embrace the arrows as the final word on life, we despair, which is another way to lose heart. To lose hope has the same effect on our heart as it would have if it stopped breathing. If there were only someone to help us reconcile our deepest longings with our greatest fears.”

D A Y  F I V E

Unforgiveness

If we harbor an unforgiving attitude, this can be a major roadblock to our healing. This includes unforgiveness received and unforgiveness given. Unforgiveness is like a cancer. The more time that goes on without forgiveness, the more opportunity for bitterness and resentment to grow. The misery of the soul will grow the longer that you live in unforgiveness.

You have insulated yourself with layers of protection

From childhood we hear messages that in turn form belief systems. We form an old identity that we want to protect. We can add layers of protection that hinder the healing of past woundedness. We can protect in a number of different ways such as controlling, passivity, separation from others, emotional withdrawal, etc.

Satanic influence or bondage

Satan and his demons want to keep you in your woundedness. Satan uses fear, intimidation, and inadequacy to defeat Christians and to prevent them from realizing who they are in Christ. He knows which emotional buttons to push in order to keep you in continual bondage. He has kept close records of your history. He knows your weaknesses!

Unbelief – Not believing how much God loves you and wants to heal you

You may be angry or bitter at God because He did not prevent the woundedness in your life. As a result, you have a difficult time believing that God loves you eternally and is willing and able to heal your deepest wounds.

Remember:

You are not a VICTIM of the past. You have a NEW identity.
What Will God Do When You Go To Him For Healing?

He will heal.

Jeremiah 30:17 – “For I will restore you to health and I will heal you of your wounds…..”

Psalm 107:20 – “He sent His word and healed them…..”

He will restore your life.

Psalm 23:3 – “He restores my soul”

Joel 2:25 – “he will restore the years the locusts have eaten.”

He persuades us that He is able and willing to heal.

Roman 4:21 – “being fully persuaded that God had power to do what he had promised.”

He renews our mind to the truth that the feelings we experience based upon our past woundedness are not a true barometer of who we are in Christ.

Colossians 3:10 – “and have put on the new self who is being renewed to a true knowledge according to the image of the One who created him.”

He confirms in our heart that He is healing our woundedness.

1 Peter 5:10 – “And after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who called you to His eternal glory in Christ, will Himself perfect, confirm, strengthen and establish you.”

Your Part In God’s Healing Process

1. COME To the Lord. and ADMIT your woundedness.

   “But whoever lives by the truth comes into the light, so that it may be seen plainly that what he has done has been done through God.” John 3:21

   Be honest with God and admit your feelings of guilt, shame, anger, etc. about what happened to you. Go to Him with honest questions such as, “If You were there and You love me, how could You have allowed this to happen?”

   God has an answer. God has given man free will. Therefore, God does allow unjust suffering and abuse in our lives. His promise to us is that He will use the evil that we were subjected to and will work it together for our good.

   God may want you to bring your secret to a friend, a pastor, or a counselor. The power of the secret must be broken, and that is only accomplished by bringing it out into the open. Like taking care of a festering wound, as painful as it is, the exposure of the secret is the beginning of healing and cleansing.
Engaging God: Take a few moments to come to the Lord and admit to Him your woundedness. Tell Him exactly how you feel and about all the pain that your woundedness has caused you.

2. In Christ, FORGIVE the person or persons responsible for the offense and if necessary, forgive yourself.

   “Bear with each other and forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another. Forgive as the Lord forgave you.” Colossian 3:13

   Remember:

   The Lord is not asking you to forgive the offense. He is ONLY asking for you to forgive the offender.

   The offense carries with it the lying emotions and belief systems. It may take a long time to heal the woundedness, but the beginning of healing starts with forgiveness. (Not only forgiveness of the offender, but perhaps forgiveness of yourself as well.)

Engaging God: You may not be willing to forgive the person who wounded you. Would you be willing to ask God to forgive this person through you? If so, continue to ask God to do this every time that thought comes up and triggers your unforgiveness.

3. In Christ, ENTRUST to Him any thoughts that trigger your woundedness.

   “Cast your burden upon the Lord, and He will sustain you; He will never allow the righteous to be shaken.” Psalm 55:22

   Every time that some event or thought triggers the painful memories of your past, entrust it immediately to Christ. Do not dwell on it for a moment. As you continue entrusting these imprisoned emotions to Christ, He is in process of freeing you from the bondage associated with those emotions.

   Engaging God: Begin entrusting to God every thought that comes to mind that triggers your woundedness. As you do, you will begin to realize that those thoughts will come to mind less often as a result of God’s healing.

4. Ask God to RENEW your mind by REPLACING the lies with His truth.

   “You will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.” John 8:32

   You have believed some of the lies associated with your emotions so long that you need to ask God to take the truth that you know and to renew your mind to that truth. Remember that your part is knowing the truth, and God’s part is to renew your mind so that you will walk in that truth.

   Engaging God: Remember that it is not the woundedness that is the issue. It is the lying beliefs surrounding the woundedness. Therefore, ask God to renew your mind to the truth and to set you free from those lying beliefs.
Final Thought

Remember that healing may take a long time because of the depth of the woundedness. In the process of healing, God is revealing to you that He alone can heal, that it is a walk of faith/dependence, and that you need Christ moment by moment whenever the memories of the painful events of your life are brought to your mind. God is taking you to the place where you know that:

“Now to Him who is able to do exceeding abundantly beyond all that we ask or think, according to the power that works within us” Ephesians 3:20
Lesson Five
Transformation Of Your Will Brokenness

DAY ONE

“...and do not go on presenting the members of your body to sin as instruments of unrighteousness; but present yourselves to God as those alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God.” Romans 6:13

Introduction

The third part of our soul that needs to be sanctified is our will since we entered salvation with an unwilling and an independent will. The diagram below illustrates the condition of our will at salvation:

God’s desire is to transform our will so that we will walk with an attitude of total dependence upon Him and be willing to submit our will to His will. However, early in our Christian walk our will (mostly controlled by our flesh) can be very stubborn and not be willing to submit to God. As God moves in our life, He will give us a greater willingness to depend upon Him and to live from Him as the Source. There is one key point that you must remember along this journey:
Key Truth

You CAN’T take yourself from being unwilling to depend upon God to submitting your will to His will. Only God can accomplish that!

Only God can move you from unwillingness to becoming willing to trust, to depend upon, to obey, etc. Therefore, our part is to come to God in faith and to ask Him to move us from independence and unwillingness to being dependent and willing.

Engaging God: Ask God to expose the areas of your life where you are unwilling to trust Him or to entrust your will to Him.

Remember That Your Will Is A RESPONDER To Your Mind and Emotions.

Remember that your will is a RESPONDER to what you believe or what you feel. Your will makes CHOICES based on what you believe and/or how you feel. The next diagram illustrates this truth:

Your Will Is A RESPONDER To Either Your MIND Or Your EMOTIONS

MIND
What you believe

EMOTIONS
How you feel

WILL
The Choice You Will Make

Therefore, if you continue to believe false beliefs with their associated damaged emotions, your will has no choice but to live from those false beliefs. As you believe and make choices based upon your false beliefs, those choices will be fleshly choices. This is why it is so crucial for God to transform your mind and emotions so that you will be making godly choices instead of fleshly choices.

As God transforms your mind and emotions with His truth, you will begin to make CHOICES that line up with God’s truth.

Question: Look at the choices that you make that result in living in the flesh (i.e., sin patterns). Can you tie your choices back to your false beliefs/damaged emotions?

Engaging God: Ask God to reveal to you how your choices are tied back to your lying beliefs.

Surrender, Obedience, Submission, And Yieldedness

“Peter and the other apostles replied, ‘We must obey God rather than men!’” Acts 5:29

What are you thinking when you see or hear the words “surrender, obedience, submission, and yieldedness?” Are these words that bring about a sense of obligation because God expects you to surrender, obey, submit, and yield? Have you heard a pastor or a teacher tell you that it is up to YOU in your own strength to accomplish surrender, obedience, etc.? If so, are you able to consistently produce the required surrender, obedience, etc.? Look at 1 Thessalonians 5:16-19:

“Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, in everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you. Do not quench the Spirit.” 1 Thessalonians 5:16-19

Look at the commands in these verses. Are you able to continuously and consistently obey these commands? God expects that these commands be kept to the letter. However, here is the key:

Key Truth:

YOU CAN’T produce consistent obedience to ANY of God’s commands!

For years I tried to obey these commands in my own strength. I even asked God to help me keep these commands. However, it wasn’t long before I ran out of willingness to keep these commands, and I gave up trying. Are you in the same situation? God knows that without living out of Christ as your Source to surrender, obey, submit, etc., you will fail eventually. It is important to understand at this point that God must do a work in you before you are willing to surrender, obey, etc. Look at Philippians 2:13 in the New Living Translation:

“For God is working in you, giving you the desire and the power to do what pleases him.” Philippians 2:13
Only by God giving you the desire and you walking in His power will you be able to function in surrender, obedience, etc. If God does not work in you to give you a willingness, you will never be able to consistently surrender, obey, submit, or yield to God. As I have allowed God to transform my will, I am more willing to obey His commands and to surrender my will to Him. The key difference is that I now do it out of a God-produced desire rather than from a legalistic obligation or self-effort.

UNLESS God transforms your will, you will be CONTINUOUSLY frustrated and will eventually give up on being surrendered, obedient, submissive, or yielded.

DAY TWO

Accomplishing God’s Will Through Your Willingness

“Going a little farther, He fell with his face to the ground and prayed, ‘My Father, if it is possible, may this cup be taken from Me. Yet not as I will, but as You will.’” Matthew 26:39

It is amazing how many calls that I get from Christians who want me to tell them God’s will for their lives. I wish that I could tell them God’s will, but I can’t because He has not told me. I think that the bigger question is, “Are you willing to submit your will to His will?” Remember that God has a will, a purpose, and a plan for your life, and it is a perfect plan.

The problem is that early on in your walk of faith you want to do things your way versus God’s way. God in His grace will allow you to do your own will to show you the futility of it and the lack of transformation that comes as a result. If God is sovereign, and He is good, and His heart is for you, then why would you not be more than willing to submit your will to His?

Here are a few good reasons why we don’t submit our will to Him:

1. Our fleshly desire to do our will versus God’s will is a greater reality.
2. We have not walked long enough by faith to experience any supernatural change.
3. We have not developed enough Christ-confidence to outweigh our self-confidence.
4. We are not persuaded of God’s love, goodness, and sovereignty concerning His plans for us.
5. We are afraid that if we submit our will to God’s will, that we will then suffer.
6. We think that we are smarter than God. We have a better plan than He does.

Concerning the last point, we would never say that we are smarter than God, but our actions continue to prove that it must be true. Think about it. You have the sovereign God of the universe Who has eternal wisdom and understanding and Who knows all options concerning your decisions, and yet you still follow your own plan and purpose rather than His.
The good news is that as you more consistently walk by faith and your Christ-confidence grows, you will find that it becomes easier and easier to submit your will to God’s will. (He really does have a better plan.)

“The Line” And The Transformation Of Your Will

In the next diagram it shows that our will is initially independent and unwilling. As we begin walking dependently upon Him, He reveals and exposes the death of our independent and unwilling will. What does that “death” look like? The death is the fleshly behavior and attitudes that result from our independence. As we see the death of an independent and unwilling will, He transforms us by giving us a desire to be willing and dependent.

Here are some areas that God moves us toward:

• Willingness to believe that God is Who He says that He is and that He will accomplish what He has promised.
• Willingness to walk by faith in God versus faith in ourselves.
• Willingness to spend time with God, meditate on His word, or pray.
• Willingness to walk in our true identity in Christ versus our lying beliefs.

The next diagram illustrates how that early on in our walk of faith our unwillingness to submit our will to God’s will is a greater reality than our willingness to submit. However, as we take steps of faith, our willingness to submit grows greater as our unwillingness diminishes.
Question: What are some areas of your life where you struggle with being willing versus being unwilling?

______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

Key Point:

Since most of us have SEVERAL areas of our flesh that cause us to live independently and unwilling, God will have to give us the desire to move toward depending upon Him in EACH of those areas.

Personal Story of Unwillingess

I discipled a man who really struggled with a critical attitude toward his wife. At some point God exposed to this man the “death” that his critical attitude was causing his marriage. As he realized the death that this attitude was causing, he began to seek God to move his will to a place of loving his wife rather than being critical of her. Next is a diagram illustrating this man’s transformation:
Day Three

Engaging God To Move You From Unwillingness To Willingness

Start engaging God to move you from unwillingness to being willing in those areas that you previously listed. Use some of the principles below in that process.

1. Admit to God the areas where you struggle with being willing.

   God has known for an eternity about the areas of your life where you struggle with unwillingness. I believe that a good first step toward changes in those areas is to admit them to God.

   Engaging God: Look at your personal areas of unwillingness and admit the stubbornness of your will to God.

2. Ask God to Expose the “death” that your unwillingness is causing in you internally (in your marriage, family, job, etc.).

   We have a pretty good idea what misery is being caused by our stubborn wills. However, in some areas we have been miserable for so long that it has become our abiding place. Therefore, we need the Holy Spirit to reveal to us the misery that we have been living in for so long due to our unwillingness.

   Engaging God: Ask God to reveal to you the death that your unwillingness is causing you.

3. Ask God to give you a desire to be willing.

   Since only God can give you a desire to be willing, ask Him to move in areas of your life to break down your unwillingness.
Engaging God: Ask God to replace your resistance to His will with His desire to be willing.

Remember that when you resist God and turn back to your own way, you are turning back to The PRODIGAL PIGPEN, which is the place of more self-induced pain, misery, and emptiness.

What Can You Expect As God Transforms Your Will?

Like the mind and the emotions, the transformation of the will is a process. As you seek the Lord to transform your will, He will begin confirming in you the changes that He is making. Below are some results that you can experience as you engage God to transform your will:

- A lessening of the resistance to live from your flesh versus living dependently upon God.
- A greater willingness to come to God for Him to transform your will.
- A desire to walk dependently in an area of your life where you were unwilling to before.
- Recognizing the death of your flesh quicker when you are independent or are unwilling.
- Realize the freedom, joy, and rest that comes with a Christ-produced willingness.

As God gives you a greater willingness to be dependent upon Him and to submit your will to Him, you will see more clearly this God within you Who loves you and has your best interests at heart.

BROKENNESS

Introduction

As much as you might be willing for God to transform your will, there are areas of your life that you are unwilling to change. I liken your will to your home. There are rooms that you are willing to let anyone go into, but there are some rooms that you are unwilling to let anyone into. It is the same with our willingness toward God. There are areas of our lives that we padlock and are unwilling for God to work in those areas. However, God loves you enough that He will bring events in your life to bring you to willingness. I want to illustrate this by what I call the doctrine of the “funnel.”
Doctrine Of The Funnel – When You Are Unwilling

God will use the “all things” of Romans 8:28 to move you from being unwilling and independent to being willing and dependent upon Him. Look at the illustration below:

What Is God’s Process of Persuasion When We Are UNWILLING To Live By Faith?

There are areas of our life where we resist God’s process of persuading us of His truth. These are areas where God wants to set us free, but we resist His efforts. Why? Our independent flesh is stronger in these areas and is unwilling to allow God to work. There is one key truth that we need to understand about our flesh:

Your flesh will ALWAYS resist God’s transforming work in your lives.

This is why Paul says in Romans 7:18:

“For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh: for the willing is present in me, but the doing of the good is not.”

When our flesh resists God’s work, God then initiates another process to persuade us to depend upon Him. It is a process whereby God reveals to us the death of our flesh (misery of the soul) and destroys its resistance to Him. The result is that we turn away from our flesh and turn back to God as our Source. This process is called brokenness.
Questions: In some area(s) of your life do you feel like Paul did in Romans 7:18? List some of the areas in your personal life where you feel that your flesh may be resisting God. What kind of turmoil is that creating in your soul?

______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

Meditate: on the second part of Romans 7:18 where it says, “the willing is present in me.” Think about the truth that the “willing” that is present in you is Christ’s willingness. It is always there and is always available to you.

Engaging God: Ask God to expose the areas in your life where you are resisting His work in your life. Then ask Him to move you from unwillingness to willingness in those areas.

DAY FOUR

What Is Brokenness?

“Whoever seeks to keep his (self) life shall lose it, and whoever loses his (self) life shall preserve it (Christ’s life).” (Parentheses mine) Luke 17:33; Matt. 16:25; Mark 8:35; Luke 9:24; John 12:25

“For we who live are constantly being delivered over to death (to the flesh) for Jesus’ sake, that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh.” 2 Corinthians 4:11 (Parenthesis mine)

“Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains by itself alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit.” John 12:24

The key word in these passages is “death.” In 2 Corinthians 4:11, Paul is saying that death to our flesh is essential. Death to our flesh means to “turn away from” our flesh. Without this death or turning away, the life of Jesus will not be manifested in our lives. He is saying the same thing in John 12:24. Unless we die to and turn away from our flesh, there will be no fruit of the Spirit produced in our life. Therefore, brokenness is a “death process” that must take place in order for us to experience Christ’s life. Let’s look at a further definition of brokenness:
BROKENNESS:

_A process that God uses in your life to turn you away from your flesh as the source for coping and dealing with life, solving your own problems, and meeting your needs so that you will turn to God as your Source._

In short, brokenness is God’s way of making the death of your flesh so clear to you that you will turn to Him and allow Him to live His life in and through you. (Death of your flesh is the misery in your soul that is created by your flesh.) Another way to look at brokenness is that God is making you _pliable_ or _moldable_ so that you will receive His truth and be transformed by that truth.

Remember: The flesh itself does not die. It will remain with you until you die physically. We _die TO_ the flesh by turning away from it.

Meditate: on 2 Corinthians 4:11 and think about these questions: “Why does Paul use the word ‘constantly?’ Is it possible that he is telling us that brokenness is an ongoing process and not just a one time event?”

Engaging God: For the areas of the flesh that you listed in the previous exercise, ask God to show you the death of your flesh and to give you a willingness to turn away from it. A step of faith might look like the following:

“Lord, in this area of my flesh I am resisting Your work in my life. Reveal to me the death that my flesh is causing me in this area and turn me away from it and back to You as my Source.”

Brokenness Is A Process Rather Than A Single Event.

So many Christians tell me that they are totally broken. If you are one of those folks, I am sorry to tell you that you are not totally broken. Why? As long as we have the flesh and the power of sin dwelling in us (which will be in our soul until we die), there will always be a need for brokenness. Brokenness is a life-long process of revealing the death of our flesh to us and turning us back to God for life. Brokenness is a tool that God uses as a necessary part of our ongoing sanctification.

_Brokenness is a LIFE-LONG process of revealing the death of our flesh and turning us back to God for life._

“The Line” and Brokenness

Let’s assume that your will is unwilling to be transformed in the area of pride. God’s desire is that you live from humility. Therefore, He will allow the “all things” in your life that may come in the form of a health issue, job loss, financial struggle, or a hurting relationship. This will result in enough pain, turmoil, conflict and misery that will cause you to go above “The Line” where God reveals to you the death that your pride is causing. This will result in brokenness. Your will is then willing to live from humility rather than from pride. This is illustrated in the next diagram:

The Brokenness Process

- SOUL
  - Pain, Turmoil, Conflict, Misery
  - Adversity—Health, Job, Finances, Relationships
  - The All Things

- SPIRIT
  - God Reveals

- WILL
  - Willing
  - UNWILLING

Brokenness Does NOT Always Have To Be Painful.

Most people believe that God only uses painful events in our life to bring us to brokenness. Many times He does. However, let me share with you a personal story of how God broke me of a lying belief by positive circumstances.

There was a time in my Christian life when I did not believe that God was a good God. I knew theologically that He was good, but deep down within I did not believe it. When we started this ministry, God set out to break me of this lie. He started the breaking process by providing an abundance of ministry. He then grew the ministry and used it to radically change Christians’ lives. It eventually became obvious that He was trying to prove His goodness to me. I remember the day that it hit me. It was the day that He broke me of my lying belief because He had so overwhelmed me with His goodness that I could no longer deny it. Therefore, brokenness can come as positive events as well as negative events in our lives.

God can bring us to brokenness with POSITIVE as well as negative circumstances in our life.

Think about this: Every time that you get revelation about God’s truth and turn away from living from the lie, that is brokenness. It does not always have to be painful.
What Does God Use To Bring Us To Brokenness?

Circumstances

God will allow struggle and conflict in our jobs, health, finances, etc. to show us that turning to the flesh will only cause more conflict and struggle. He will use those events to cause us to turn away from our flesh and to turn to Him as our Source.

For example: You just lost your job with the result that you are going to lose your home. If you turn to your flesh, you might become angry, anxious, fearful, etc. This will only create misery in your soul. As God reveals to you the death of your anger, anxiety, or fear, He will use that misery to persuade you to turn back to Him as the solution to the problem.

Engaging God: Think about the adverse circumstances that you are currently going through. Are any of them creating fleshly attitudes? Through them is God trying to deal with something in your life, but you feel that you are resisting Him? If so, ask God to expose to you the death (misery in the soul) of those fleshly attitudes and to remove the resistance to His work in you. A step of faith might look like the following:

“Lord, this financial problem is causing me great anxiety and worry. I am entrusting this problem to You and am asking You to remove this resistance within my flesh so that I will enter into Your rest knowing that You have a solution for this problem.”

DAY FIVE

Relationships

God uses hurting and/or broken relationships to break us from going to the flesh to try to resolve or reconcile relationships. He uses those difficult relationships to reveal our need for Him to heal or restore those relationships.

For example: Think of the one person who agitates you the most. It may only take a few moments to work up frustration, anger, unforgiveness, or even bitterness toward that person if you stay in your flesh. However, is it possible that God is using that relationship to expose your fleshly attitude of frustration, anger, or unforgiveness? God’s desire is that you will see the death that your flesh is causing you and that it will cause you turn to back to Him. Is it possible that instead of living from those fleshly attitudes that God wants to transform you so that you can forgive and even love that person? By the way, what do you think that person that you struggle with needs? Is it your fleshly attitudes or God’s unconditional love?
Engaging God: What kind of fleshly attitudes are you experiencing in the relationships that you are currently struggling with? Ask God to give you “spiritual” eyes to see the death that your flesh is causing in you and in the relationship. Ask Him to break you of those fleshly attitudes and to unconditionally love this person through you. A step of faith might look like the following:

“Lord, show me the death that my frustration, anger, or unforgiveness toward this person is causing me. Give me a heart of repentance, and replace my unforgiveness with Your forgiveness.”

Internal Struggles

Even internal struggles caused by our lying beliefs, damaged emotions, woundedness, strongholds, etc. are used by God to break us and to reveal our moment by moment need for Him. We all have internal struggles that can keep us in bondage to our flesh or that can drive us to God. Initially, God uses these struggles to expose the flesh and its resistance to His work. However, God wants us to bring these struggles to Him.

For example: Let’s assume that you have an ongoing struggle in your flesh with a critical or judgmental spirit. Let’s assume that your flesh is unwilling to be broken in this area. Every time that critical spirit is activated by your flesh, God’s desire is to reveal to you the death (misery of the soul) that your critical spirit is causing you and the person that it is directed toward. It is through that misery that God will break down your fleshly resistance and replace your critical spirit with His love.

Engaging God: What are some of the fleshly attitudes/behaviors that are resulting from the internal struggles that you are facing? Ask God to expose the death of these attitudes and your fleshly resistance to them so that you will turn to Him to break you of them and to replace them with Christ-like attitudes. (We are about to study the meaning of a Christ-like attitude.) A step of faith might look like the following:

“I am struggling with the lie that I am an inadequate person. As a result, I am a people-pleaser. Lord, show me the death of my flesh and persuade me of the truth that I am totally adequate in You.”

God uses every circumstance, relationship, and internal struggle to EXPOSE the death of your flesh and to turn you back to Him for LIFE.
What Is God’s Motivation For Bringing You To Brokenness?

God’s motivation for bringing you to brokenness is His LOVE for you.

This may be difficult if not impossible for you to understand because many ask, “How could a loving God allow so much pain and heartache in my life?” This is an extremely difficult truth to teach.

Therefore, I will personally testify to this truth. I have experienced great pain, woundedness, and rejection in my life. However, God has persuaded me that He loved me enough that He allowed all those things in my life to turn me away from my fleshly independence and to turn to Him for life. I realized that it was His great love at work because He could not bear for me to be stuck in the death of my flesh. He saw the intense pain that these issues were creating in my life and in the lives of those around me.

Therefore, out of His love, He used every painful event in my life to bring me to brokenness and back to Him. As I look back over my life, I have honestly said to God (many times), “Thank you for every painful and hurtful experience in my life because through them you destroyed my fleshly resistance and radically changed my life.” You may not be able to thank God today for your past. However, I trust that the Lord will move you at some point to a place where you will see His love behind every “brokenness” experience in your life so that you can thank Him for those experiences.

Engaging God: Have you experienced woundedness, abuse, or painful events in your life that cause you to question God’s love and concern for you? How do these events make you feel about God? If they have caused negative feelings towards God, come to Him and ask Him to change your heart to a point where you will thank Him for every event in your life. A step of faith might look like the following:

“Lord, because of the pain that I am experiencing through this brokenness, it is difficult for me to believe that You are allowing this out of Your love for me. I am asking You to persuade me of Your love even in the midst of this pain.”

Contrast Between Unbrokenness And Brokenness

Let’s look at the differences between an unbroken Christian and a broken one:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Unbrokenness</th>
<th>Brokenness</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Seeks relief</td>
<td>Seeks God</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Seeks fleshly solutions</td>
<td>Seeks God as the solution</td>
</tr>
<tr>

<td>Is dependent</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Claims fleshly rights</td>
<td>Surrenders fleshly rights</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Is self-confident</td>
<td>Is Christ-confident</td>

<td>Is transparent</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Is arrogant and prideful</td>
<td>Is walking in Christ’s humility</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Doubts God</td>
<td>Trusts God</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Exercise: Look at one area of your life where you believe that you are not broken. Write down which of the characteristics above describe your unbrokenness.

______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

Engaging God: Ask God to begin moving you to brokenness in this area. A step of faith might look like the following:

“Lord, I feel that I have the fleshly right to be unforgiving to this person who has offended me. I am entrusting my unforgiveness to You and am asking You to move me to a place where I will surrender my fleshly right to not forgive this person.”

What Is On The Other Side of Brokenness?

“always carrying about in the body the dying of Jesus, that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our body. For we who live are constantly being delivered over to death for Jesus’ sake, that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh.” 2 Corinthians 4:10-11

Good news! 2 Corinthians 4:10-11 reveals that brokenness which brings about the death of self results in more of the life of Jesus being manifested in your life. What are some of the manifestations of Christ’s life in your life as a result of brokenness?

1. Seeing God’s immeasurable love for you as the motivation for your brokenness.
2. Seeing your absolute need for dependence upon God.
3. Healing and restoration in your soul.
4. Having Christ-confidence concerning His work in your life.
5. Experiencing God’s peace and rest instead of the turmoil caused by your flesh.
6. Replacing of fleshly attitudes with Christ-like attitudes.
7. Enjoying a personal, intimate relationship with God.

REMEMBER:

God loves you enough that He will turn up the HEAT in your life until you come to the place of brokenness. The reason is that He does not want you to spend any more time in the misery of your soul due to unbrokenness.

Summary

God’s greatest desire is for your will to be totally submissive to His will. He knows that as you walk in submission, obedience, and dependence to His will that it will produce the transformation that you so desire. Therefore, He wants to transform your thinking and emotions so that your will makes choices based upon truth. To the extent that you are unwilling to let God work, He loves you enough that He will initiate the brokenness process in your life. For the most part, I have not enjoyed God’s process of brokenness. However, when I look back and see the results of brokenness, I thank Him for what it has produced. I hope that you will do the same.
Lesson Six

Summary

D AY O N E

Introduction

I trust by this point you have a better understanding of the sanctification process. I want to share with you again what is happening to the soul as you are being transformed.

As Your Soul Is Being Transformed

SOUL
- Healing of Woundedness
- Freedom from Strongholds

MIND
- Human spirit
  - In UNION With God
  - Thinking and believing truth.

WILL
- Greater dependence and willingness
- Greater dependence and willingness

BODY
- Healing of Woundedness

EMOTIONS
- Healing of damaged emotions

Are you beginning to experience any change in these areas? Let’s sum up the key truths in this study.

- The renewing of your mind begins with learning God’s truth and then engaging the Spirit to create a “spiritual” filter and begin replacing your lying beliefs with the truth.
- As you begin to believe and live from the truth, God will break down your strongholds.
- There is a non-stop battle in your mind. If you don’t engage God to fight this battle then you cannot win.
- Satan has a non-stop strategy to insert thoughts, deceive, and distract you from your walk in Christ. Remember that the greatest fear of the enemy is the truth.
As the Spirit renews your mind to the truth, He will heal your damaged emotions tied to your lying beliefs and heal your woundedness.

As your mind is being renewed and your damaged emotions are being healed, your choices will line up with God’s truth.

God will use all things in your life to bring about brokenness so that your willingness to live from the truth grows.

As Your Spiritual Filter Develops

What you will discover as you seek God to renew your mind is that your spiritual filter will continue to develop.

- You will begin to reject thoughts that you always took ownership of.
- You will automatically be thinking truth in some area where you previously thought the lie.
- You will be able to better discern whether your thoughts are from the Spirit or from Satan/demonic.
- Your spiritual “AGD” (attention to God disorder) will lessen as you are better able to focus on Christ.

Question: Are you experiencing changes in any of these areas?

DAY TWO

In Addition, Your Spiritual Filter Will Produce SPIRITUAL Eyes To See The DIVINE GOOD In Every Situation

“because we are not looking at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen. For what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal.” 2 Corinthians 4:18

The blind man said, “once I was blind, but now I see” (John 9:25). When we begin this walk of faith, we are much like the blind man. All we can see is what our five senses tell us. However, much like eyeglasses give us clearer vision, as we continue to walk by faith God gives us “spiritual” eyeglasses from which to see God’s divine good in our lives.

The key issue when I am discipling Christians in conflict is that they do not know how God defines “good.” They ask “How can it be good that I have lost my job, that I can’t make ends meet, that I have a chronic health condition, etc.” These and other questions you may be asking cause us to question how can these things can be “good.” Let me ask you some questions:

1. “What if your lost job, financial struggles, and chronic health condition drew you into a deeper dependence on God? Would that be good?
2. What if these things were necessary for brokenness so that you could experience more of Christ’s life? Would that be good?
3. What if these things were being used by God to transform you into Christ-likeness? Would you call that good?

The truth is that we, apart from knowing God’s truth and His character will never understand how these things can be called “good.” What I find with Christians who are in conflict is that they want to make it about “the thing.” By the “thing,” I mean the lost job, financial struggles, health problems, etc. However, the question I always ask is: “What is God about in “the thing?” How is He going to use the conflict for divine good?

In our human-ness we just want to get past “the thing.” We don’t like the pain or suffering “the thing” is causing. However, as your mind, emotions, and will are being transformed then you will have “spiritual” eyes to understand that God will use “the things” to accomplish his goal of transforming your life and bringing you into a greater dependence on Him.

We see more clearly God’s purposes and how He is fulfilling our spiritual destiny of being transformed. We see the enemies to our walk as powerless when we walk in God’s power. We also see God’s love for us even when everything in our circumstances would say otherwise.

Another analogy I use is seeing your life from God’s perspective from 30,000 feet. Early on in your walk of faith it is like being on ground level. However, as you grow in your faith you gain altitude and can see more and more of what God is doing and why He is doing it. What is going on in your life will be much clearer to see at 30,000 feet.

God will give you spiritual EYES to see what the natural man is blinded to.

Exercise: What problem are you currently facing that you need to see from 30,000 feet? Ask God to make all of the truths above concerning your problem a reality.

DAY THREE

Remember That You Will Not Be Able To Connect A Step of Faith To Experiencing Transformation Tomorrow.

Another key truth that we need to understand is that we can’t connect a step of faith with transformation tomorrow. This is a struggle because we want to connect the “spiritual” dots and figure out how everything that is going on in our lives is connected. The truth is that God knows, and our part is to trust Him and rest in that fact. Part of the faith journey is to learn how to rest in the fact that God knows how the dots are connected, and we don’t have to know.
Your Walk of Faith Will Build MOMENTUM As Your Christ-Confidence Grows

“And such confidence we have through Christ toward God.” 2 Corinthians 3:4

As I have said before, I see so many Christians living with a lack of “Christ-confidence.” As I mentioned before, it is because so few have walked long enough by faith to experience God’s supernatural work in renewing their minds to the truth that is setting them free.

However, as you continue to walk by faith, your spiritual walk will be like a snowball rolling downhill. As your Christ-confidence grows, you gain spiritual momentum because your desire and willingness grows to experience more and more of God’s transformation.

THE CHALLENGE:
To take enough steps of faith to experience SUPERNATURAL changes in order to build your CHRIST-CONFIDENCE in God’s ability and His desire to transform your life.

You Will Find Your Soul At A Greater REST

“Come to Me all you who are weary and heavy-laden and I will give you (BE YOUR) REST.”
Matthew 11:28 (Parenthesis mine)

As your soul is being transformed, you will find your mind, emotions, and will coming to a greater rest. What do I mean by “rest?” It means that thoughts that use to overwhelm you and cause anxiety, fear, worry, etc. don’t anymore. Emotions that would cause you unrest, anger, etc. no longer control you. The choices you will make will line up with God’s truth and your Christ-confidence will grow. As your resistance to God’s work in your life subsides you will experience a greater rest. All of these things will give you a “supernatural rest” in your soul.

DAY FOUR

Can We HASTEN The Sanctification Process?

Is it possible for you to hasten God’s process of transforming your life? Yes it is! Remember that faith is your cooperation with God’s initiation in your life. God is at work in you non-stop to transform your life. The question for you is, “How willing are you to cooperate with Him by faith?” We have a moment by moment choice to either cooperate with God’s work or to resist His work in our life. If we resist His work by choosing to live in the flesh, the consequences will cause a delay in God’s process. However, if we choose to cooperate with God by faith, this will hasten God’s transforming process in our lives.
As we said earlier, God’s work in our lives is not contingent on our faith. I know from experience in my life and in the lives of others that I have ministered to that the sanctification process is accelerated as we intentionally engage God by faith.

Your WILLINGNESS to cooperate with God by faith can hasten the process!

God Is Not Measuring Your Progress (And Neither Should You!)

A key point to remember in the process is that God never measures your spiritual progress. He is not standing there with a stop watch, a clip board, or a tape measure wondering when you are going to get to the next level of maturity. Our tendency is to measure how well we are doing, how far we have traveled down the path of sanctification, why we are not further along, etc. If God doesn’t measure your progress, neither should you. Measuring your spiritual progress is like taking a road trip to a particular destination and not enjoying the journey. So roll the windows down, smell the roses, and enjoy the journey!

DON’T Measure Your Progress. God doesn’t!

DAY FIVE

What Is The Outcome Of The Sanctification Process?

Remember that this is your spiritual destiny according to Romans 8:29 and 2 Corinthians 3:18:

“For whom He foreknew, He also predestined to become conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the first-born among many brethren.” Romans 8:29

“And we, who with unveiled faces all reflect the Lord’s glory, are being transformed into His likeness with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.” 2 Corinthians 3:18

Your destiny is to be conformed to Christ-likeness. God’s greatest desire is that you will participate with Him and allow Him to fulfill His destiny in you and through you. As you do, you will experience the following in your life:

- You will begin to think, believe, choose and behave MORE like Jesus.
- You will experience MORE Christ-like attitudes in your soul.
- You will become MORE “others focused” and less self-focused.
- Christ will flow THROUGH you to minister to others.
The Ultimate Objective Of Sanctification

“His unchanging plan has always been to adopt us into His own family by bringing us to Himself through Jesus Christ. And this gave Him great pleasure.” Ephesians 1:5

It is important to conclude our study by tying the sanctification process back to God’s unchanging plan. Why? If the end point of sanctification is just about personal transformation, then it ends up being about “me.” However, even as wonderful as experiencing God’s transformation may be, it ultimately is designed to bring you to a greater fulfillment of God’s unchanging plan of an intimate relationship with Himself.

As you experience God’s changing work in your life, you will discover how awesome God is and how worthy He is of your love. You will come to a place where you will no longer have transformation as your main objective in your Christian life. At some point you will come to the place that Paul did in Philippians 3:8:

“What is more, I consider everything a loss compared to the surpassing greatness of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them rubbish, that I may gain Christ.” Philippians 3:8

God’s sanctification process will bring you to the place where all you want is JESUS.

At that point He will be your ALL in ALL.
Where Do I Go From Here?

You have just finished Book Three of the four part discipleship series called Living A Transformed Life In Christ. Book Four of this series is called Living From The Overflow of Christ. If you would like this next study, please go to our ministry website which is www.christislifeministries.com and look under the Store section. You will find the series called Living A Transformed Life In Christ. You will see under this section the curriculum called Living From The Overflow of Christ. You can purchase them online or email your order to our email address below. Or, you can download these materials for free and reproduce as many copies as you would like.

Living From The Overflow of Christ will focus on the following:

- God’s process of producing Christ-like attitudes.
- How the overflow of God’s internal transformation impacts you personally, the workplace, marriage and family.
- What does ministry look like at home, at church and at the workplace from the overflow of Christ in you.
